ESTABLISHED 1837.

JOHN MURPHY & CO.

BOOKSELLERS, PUBLISHERS, PRINTERS & STATIONERS, 182 Baltimore Street, Baltimore.

Have the pleasure of announcing to their friends and the public, that they have removed from their old stand, 178, to the new and spacious five story Marble Building 182 Baltimore street, second house West of their former stand, where they are constantly enlarging their stock and variety of BOOKS, PAPER, BLANK BOOKS, STATIONERY, and FOREIGN BOOKS, and continue the PRINTING, PUBLISHING and BOOK-BINDING departments of their business on a more extensive scale.

In returning thanks for the liberal encouragement extended for the last eighteen years at their old stand, they trust that their enlarged stock and increased facilities will meet with that liberal support which they hope to merit by the most rigid regard to the interests of all who may favor them with their custom in the various departments of their business.

In connection with the foregoing announcement, they beg to invite attention to their Enlarged Stock, comprising a very extensive and varied assortment of BOOKS in GENERAL LITERATURE, in every variety of plain and superb Bindings, to which constant additions are being made of all new works of merit, as soon as published.

Their stock of CATHOLIC BOOKS embraces, in addition to their own, all the American Publications, together with a large stock of English, Irish, French, and Belgian Editions, of the most approved works,—to which constant additions are being made by direct Importation.

FOREIGN BOOKS, RELIGIOUS ARTICLES, &c.—Their stock in this line comprises a very large assortment of MISSALS, BREVIAIRES and LITURGICAL BOOKS,—also, THEOLOGICAL and ASCETIC WORKS, generally,—together with an extensive stock of FRENCH WORKS, in the various departments of Literature, including a great variety of Prayer and Devotional Books, in every variety of plain and elegant Bindings, to which constant additions are regularly made by direct Importation.

RELIGIOUS PICTURES, PRAYER BEADS, CRUCIFIXES, MEDALS, MEDALLIONS, STATUETTES, &c., &c.—Their stock in this line is extensive, embracing a great variety of styles and prices—and being imported direct, they are enabled to sell very low.

SCHOOL and CLASSICAL BOOKS, PAPER and STATIONERY.—Their stock in this line comprises everything requisite for Colleges, Schools, &c., &c.

BLANK BOOKS, PAPER, FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC STATIONERY, COMMERCIAL and LAW BLANKS, &c., &c.—Their stock in this line embraces every requisite for Counting-Houses, Banks, Rail Road Companies, Public Offices, &c.

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING, BOOK-BINDING, &c.—Having united with their Bookstore, in the same building, an extensive Printing Office and Bookbindery, well supplied with the most approved materials, and experienced workmen, enable them to offer superior advantages and inducements for the prompt, careful and correct execution of every description of Book and Job Printing, Ruling and Book-binding, well worthy the attention of all who may require anything in this line.

They take pleasure in announcing to their friends and the public, that they have completed their arrangements, by which they are now enabled to keep constantly on hand a large and choice assortment of almost every thing required in connection with the Catholic Book Business. They deem it unnecessary to enlarge on the advantages, convenience, and saving of time and expense, which this combination and concentration of stock affords to Bookbuyers, Booksellers, Colleges, Academies, Religious Institutions, Libraries, &c. &c., in being able to purchase every thing at one place, at the very Lowest Rates, Wholesale and Retail.

A CATALOGUE OF FOREIGN WORKS, including MISSALS, BREVIAIRES, &c., for sale by MURPHY & Co., intended for the Almanac, has been omitted for want of time to prepare it. It will be ready early in 1859, with the prices, carefully revised and reduced to the lowest standard, and will be furnished on application personally or by letter.

Recommendation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore.

Messrs. Murphy & Co. having undertaken the publication of the Metropolitan Catholic Almanac, at the instance of the late Provincial Council of Baltimore, I recommend the undertaking to the favor of the Prelates of the United States and of the Clergy and faithful, that the necessary information may be furnished them in due time, and that the work may meet with patronage.

PREFACE.

THE METROPOLITAN CATHOLIC ALMANAC AND LAITY'S DIRECTORY FOR THE UNITED STATES, was commenced in Baltimore in 1832, and was issued without interruption until 1858, when its publishers declined its farther publication. The late Council of Baltimore, by special resolution, requested us to continue the work. We felt it our duty to comply with a request emanating from this high source; and hence we now offer to the public the twenty-sixth number of the Catholic Almanac.

Whilst we have limited the contents of this volume mainly to such information as regards the condition of the Church in the United States, we have not hesitated to give such other useful matter as an annual of this kind might be expected to supply.

Throughout the body of the Almanac we have, as far as we could, adopted an alphabetical arrangement: In this order we have placed the Provinces of the United States; and in like manner we have arranged the Suffragan Sees of each Province.

We have endeavored to attain the greatest accuracy; and as the statistics of the different dioceses, with but very few exceptions, have been officially reported to us, the Almanac will be found generally most reliable in its statements. Some errors no doubt may appear in the work, arising principally from the collating and systematizing of the various reports of the Prelates and Heads of Religious Communities. We hope, however, that there will be found sufficient evidence in the general arrangement and accuracy of the Almanac for 1859, to show that we are not unworthy either of the confidence placed in us by the late Council of Baltimore, or of the approval and support of the Catholic public.

We return our thanks to the Most Rev. and Right Rev. Prelates, to the Rev. Clergy, and to others, who have supplied us with materials for the Almanac; and we respectfully solicit a continuance of such favors from all who can contribute to the usefulness of the work in future.

III. A partial Eclipse of the Sun, March 4th, invisible in the U. States.

IV. A partial Eclipse of the Sun, July 29th, in the afternoon. This Eclipse will be very small, lasting only a few minutes, and occurs about an hour before sunset. Visible in the eastern, northern and middle states.

V. A total Eclipse of the Moon, Aug. 13th, invisible in the U. States.

VI. A partial Eclipse of the Sun, Aug. 28th, invisible in the U. States.

VENUS.—Venus will be Morning Star until the 18th of October, then Evening Star the remainder of the year. It will be brightest Jan. 18th, visible in the East in the morning.

MERCURY.—This planet will be brightest about March 31st, July 29th, and Nov. 23d, at which times it will be quite likely to be visible, being then in the West immediately after Sun set. It will again be brightest about Jan. 24, May 23d, and Sep. 17th, when it will be in the East just before Sun rise.

SEASONS.—Sun enters Aries, March 20th, at 10 h. 19 m. P. M.; when spring commences, and the days and nights are equal.

Sun enters Cancer, June 21st, at 6 h. 57 m. P. M.; when summer commences, and the longest day occurs.

Sun enters Libra, September 23d, at 9 h. 9 m. A. M.; when autumn commences, and the days and nights are again equal.

Sun enters Capricornus, December 22d, at 3 h. 2 m. A. M.; when winter commences, and the shortest day occurs.

THE GREGORIAN CALENDAR, &c.—Calendar is a word formed from the Latin signifying “an account of the days of each month.” The first day of every Roman month was called its “Calends,” and all the days in the latter division of each month were numbered according to their distance from the “Calends” of the succeeding months.

The Year is a very ancient division of time, being the number of days occupied by the sun in its apparent course through the heavens. In the circular line traced by the sun’s course, are twelve clusters of stars, which severally have received the names of animals, and mark the division of the year into months. The circular line itself is called the Zodiac, from a Greek word, signifying animals, and the twelve clusters of stars are called the twelve signs of the Zodiac.

The Natural or Solar year is the time during which the sun is passing through the twelve signs of the Zodiac, and consists of 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, and 48 seconds.

The Common or Civil year contains 365 days, and being shorter than the natural year, confusion would ensue, if the matter were not regularly set right, which is done by adding a day to every fourth year. This fourth year is called Leap-year; the day is added to the end of February, making 29 days, instead of, as usual, 28. Leap-year is sometimes called Bissex-tile. Julius Cæsar having ordered the day in question to be added to the 24th of February, which was the 6th day (Sextile) before the Calends (or 1st) of March, the 24th of February was counted twice (Bis-sextile). The Common or Civil year is sometimes called the Julian year, because Julius Cæsar made this arrangement 47 years before the birth of Our Lord.

Still this order was not perfect, as the year was found to be eleven minutes longer than the Natural or Solar year, which, in the course of time, prevented the months falling rightly with the Seasons, and with the moveable Feasts of the Christian Church. Then was introduced, in some places, the Gregorian Calendar, so called from Pope Gregory the XIII, who in 1582 ordered that after the 4th of October ten days should be left out, so that the day following the 4th was called the 15th, instead of the 5th. To prevent similar error in future, he directed that after the year 1600 every hundredth year, which ought to have been Leap-year, according to the Julian reckoning, should be a common year for three successive centuries, but that every fourth hundredth year should remain a Leap-year. Thus the years 1700, 1800, and 1900, would have the usual number of days; but it is designed that the year 2000, and every fourth hundred year afterwards, should have an additional day.

THE CONGRESS of the United States consists of a Senate and a House of Representatives, and must assemble at least once a year, on the first Monday of December, unless otherwise directed by law.

THE SENATE is composed of two members from each state. They are chosen by the Legislatures of the several states for the term of six years, one-third being elected biennially. The Vice-President of the United States is President of the Senate, having the casting vote when the votes of the Senators are equally divided. In case of his absence or death, a President pro tempore is chosen by the Senators from their own body.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES is composed of members from the several states, elected by the people for the term of two years, and apportioned to the population in the following manner. After each decennial census, the Secretary of the Interior is to add to the whole number of free persons—including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed—three-fifths of all other persons. This aggregate is to be divided by 233, and the quotient, rejecting fractions, is to be the ratio of apportionment to the several states. The representative population of each state, ascertained in the same manner and divided by the above-named ratio, will give a quotient which is the apportionment for that state. Any loss by fractions is to be made up by assigning to as many states having the largest fractions, as may be necessary to make the whole number of representatives 233, one additional member each. And if, after the apportionment, new states are admitted, representatives are assigned to such states on the above basis in addition to the limited number of 233; but such excess is to continue only till the next apportionment under the succeeding census. Besides the representatives from the states, there is a delegate from each territory, who has a right to speak, but not to vote. The compensation of the members is $3,000 per annum, and that of the Speaker $6,000, and $8 for every twenty miles' travel in going and returning.

THE SUPREME COURT.—Chief Justice, Roger B. Taney, of Maryland, salary $6,500. Associate Justices, John McLean, Ohio; James M. Wayne, Georgia; John Catron, Tennessee; Peter V. Daniel, Virginia; Samuel Nelson, New York; Robert C. Grier, Pennsylvania; John A. Campbell, Alabama; Nathan Clifford, Maine; salary $6,000. This Court is held in Washington, and has but one session annually, commencing on the first Monday in December.

CIRCUIT COURTS.—The United States are divided into ten judicial circuits, in each of which a Circuit Court is held at least twice a year for each state within the circuit, by a Justice of the Supreme Court, and the District Judge of the state or district in which the court sits.

DISTRICT COURTS.—The United States are also divided into fifty districts, in which District Courts are held by forty-one district judges. And in each of the territories there is also a Judge and two Associate Judges, appointed by the Executive of the United States.

INTERCOURSE WITH FOREIGN NATIONS.—The pay of Envoys Extraordinary, and Ministers Plenipotentiary, and so of Chargés, Secretaries of Legation, and of Ministers Resident, varies with the country to which they are commissioned. The United States are represented by Ministers Plenipotentiary at the courts of Great Britain, France, Spain, Russia, Prussia, Mexico, Brazil, Chili, Peru, and China; and by Chargés d'Affaires or Ministers Resident, at the courts of most of the other foreign powers with which this country is connected by commercial intercourse. There are 197 consuls and commercial agents from the United States residing in foreign countries: and 21 ministers and chargés, and 481 consuls and commercial agents from foreign countries in the United States.

THE ARMY.—The authorized strength of the United States army is 17,984, officers and men; the actual strength, 15,764. This force is divided into 19 regiments, garrisoning 68 permanent forts, and 70 military posts in different parts of the country. The whole territory of the United States is divided into 6 great departments, in which there are 25 arsenals and armories, besides the camps and forts above mentioned.

THE NAVY.—The navy of the United States has, (1858,) captains—active list 76, reserved list 15; commanders—active list 106, reserved list 20; lieutenants—active list 319, reserved list 54; surgeons of various grades, 185; pursers, 60; midshipmen, and other officers down to assistant engineers, 529. Ten ships of the line, 10 frigates, 21 sloops of war, 3 brigs, 19 screw-steamers, 3 tenders, 7 side-wheel steamers, 3 store-vessels, 5 permanent store and receiving ships, a naval asylum, a naval academy, and 8 navy-yards.

THE MARINE CORPS.—The Marine corps has the organization of a brigade, and consists, (1858,) besides staff officers, of 1 lieutenant-colonel, 4 majors, 13 captains, 19 first and 20 second lieutenants, and about 1,150 non-commissioned officers, musicians, men, etc.

Limits of Moveable Feasts.

1. The earliest day on which Septuagesima Sunday can fall is the 18th of January; the latest is the 21st of February.
2. The earliest day for Ash-Wednesday is February 4th; the latest is March 10th.
3. The earliest day for EASTER is March 22d; the latest is April 25th.
4. The earliest day for first Sunday of Advent is November 27th; the latest is December 3d.

Notes.

1. On the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop the solemn Votive Mass of Consecration should be celebrated in the Cathedral Church. If the Anniversary fall on a Sunday of 1st Class, within Holy Week, on Easter, Pentecost, Christmas, &c., the Anniversary Mass should (for that year) be omitted. Should it occur upon a Sunday in Lent, the prayer for the Bishop must be said in the “Mass of the time.” Throughout the diocese, the commemoration of the same anniversary must be made by every priest with the prayer “Deus omnium fidelium” in the Votive Mass of the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop. This commemoration, however, should be omitted when the Anniversary occurs on Festivals of 1st Class, Holy Thursday, Holy Saturday, or on any of the Sundays which admit only one prayer at Mass. But on Sundays and Feasts of 2d Class the commemoration is made with one ending.
2. The Mass for the Transfer of a Bishop must be celebrated in the Church over which he is last placed; and throughout the diocese, the commemoration must be on the anniversary of the Transfer.

COMMANDMENTS.

The Ten Commandments.

1. "I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt not have strange gods before me. Thou shalt not make to thyself a graven thing, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not adore them, nor serve them."
 2. "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain."
 3. "Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day."
 4. "Honor thy father and thy mother."
 5. "Thou shalt not kill."
 6. "Thou shalt not commit adultery."
 7. "Thou shalt not steal."
 8. "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor."
 9. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife."
 10. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods."

Commandments of the Church.

1. The Catholic Church commands her children, on Sundays and holy-days of obligation, to be present at the holy sacrifice of Mass, to rest from servile works on those days, and to keep them holy.
 2. She commands them to abstain from flesh on all days of fasting and abstinence; and on fast days to eat but one meal.
 3. She commands them to confess their sins to their pastor at least once a year.
 4. She commands them to receive the Blessed Sacrament at least once a year, and that at Easter, or during the paschal time.
 5. To contribute to the support of their pastor.
 6. Not to marry within the fourth degree of kindred, nor privately without witnesses; nor to solemnize marriage at certain prohibited times.
- N. B. 1. The fourth council of Lateran, Can. 21, ordains that "every one of the faithful, of both sexes, after they come to the years of discretion, shall in private faithfully confess all their sins, at least once a year, to their own pastor; and take care to fulfil, to the best of their power, the penance enjoined them; receiving reverently, at least at Easter, the sacrament of the Eucharist, unless perhaps by the counsel of their own pastor, for some reasonable cause, they judge proper to abstain from it for a time; otherwise let them be excluded out of the Church whilst living; and when they die, be deprived of Christian burial."

FAST, ABSTINENCE, AND EMBER DAYS.

2. The time for the performance of the Easter duty, may be extended within the United States, from the first Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday, both inclusively.

3. The solemnizing of marriage, that is, the celebration of the rite during the Mass pro sponso et sponsa, or with a display of festivity, is prohibited from the first Sunday of Advent till after Epiphany, and from the beginning of Lent till after Low Sunday.

Fasting Days.

Fridays in Advent. Every day in Lent, Sundays excepted. The Ember-Days (see below.) The Vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assumption, of All-Saints, and of Christmas.

N. B. 1. When a fasting day falls upon a Sunday, it is kept on the Saturday preceding that Sunday. To fast, consists in abstaining from flesh-meat, and eating but one full meal in the day, not before 12 o'clock, M. Besides this, a collation, or about the one-fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have completed their 21st year are obliged to observe the fasts of the church, unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In some dioceses the Friday of the Ember-days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide, that the feast of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United States, on the Sunday immediately after the 29th of June, and it is the wish of the Sacred Congregation that the Right Rev. Bishops exhort the faithful under their charge, to keep fast on the Saturday preceding that solemn celebration.

Days of Abstinence.

All Fridays and Saturdays, except those Saturdays which fall between the 25th of Dec. and the 2d of Feb., inclusively,* and all the Sundays in Lent. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of precept.

* Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with, for the faithful of the United States, for the space of twenty years, from the year 1840, except when a fast falls on that day.

Ember Days.

The Ember-Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the 3d Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the 1st Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 10th of September. They are days of fasting and are of great antiquity in the church. The object of their observance is, to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year, by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on the Ember-Days.

Holydays of Obligation.

1. The Circumcision of our Lord—The Epiphany—The Annunciation of the B. V. Mary—The Ascension of our Lord—Corpus Christi—The Assumption of the B. V. Mary—All Saints—Nativity of our Lord or Christmas.

N. B. Sundays and the feasts which fall on them, are not included in this enumeration.

(In some Dioceses the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, and Corpus Christi, are not holydays of obligation.)

2. The sanctification of Sundays and holydays of obligation consists, 1st, in abstaining from servile work, from all commerce and manual labor, which is not necessary for the worship of God and the support of life; 2d, in returning to God by penance, cleansing our conscience, receiving the Sacraments, and performing other duties of religion. Among these duties, that of assisting at the holy sacrifice of Mass is the principal, and is binding under pain of mortal sin, unless sickness or some other important reason dispense us from this obligation. Though a person may be said to obey to the letter the precept of the Church, by hearing Mass, it is certainly a great abuse to restrict to this point only, the whole sanctification which the law of God prescribes. To be satisfied with assisting at Low Mass, without performing any other act of religion, as many Christians do, is to go against the spirit of the Church in that particular commandment, to disobey other commandments she has imposed, and not to satisfy the commandments of God.

Liturgical Instruction.

Explanation of the Ornaments and Ceremonies used in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

All the external rites used in the celebration of the holy mysteries are intended for the instruction of the faithful. The chief design of these rites is to commemorate and to represent the passion and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is plainly to be observed in the altar and its ornaments, as also in the vestments which are worn by the priest.

As to the color of the ornaments with which the priest celebrates the holy mysteries, the White is used on the festivals of our Lord, of the B. Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Finding and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the Feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember-Days, and Rogation Days, when the office is of them.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday exclusively, when the office is of the Sunday. In the Paschal time, the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead; which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a double, except from Palm Sunday to Low Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

Explanation of the Calendar.

Ap. signifies Apostle—App. Apostles—M. Martyr—MM. Martyrs—P. Pope—B. Bishop—C. Confessor—D. Doctor—Ab. Abbot—V. Virgin—Wid. Widow—SS. Saints—D. M. Days of the Month—D. W. Days of the Week—† marks the days of indulgence—hy. ch. means the change in the hymn Isto Confessor.

The prayers and portions of the Holy Scriptures of which the Mass is composed, are in part the same, and partly different every day. Those fixed are contained in the Ordinary of the Mass, at the beginning of the Missal. The parts changeable or proper are—the Introit, Collect, Gradual, Tract, Epistle, Gospel, Offertory, Secret, Communion, and Post-communions—and form the subsequent contents of the book. As the Prefaces are not so frequently subject to change, they follow each other in regular succession in the Ordinary of the Mass.

If a double fall on a Sunday, then the Mass of the double is said instead of that of the Sunday, unless it be a privileged Sunday, such as the first Sunday of Advent or Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Pentecost, and Trinity Sundays, which are never superseded. The Sundays of the second class, which cannot be superseded except by doubles of the first class, are the second, third, and fourth of Advent, Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima; as also the second, third, and fourth of Lent. It must, however, be remarked that the gospels of Sundays thus superseded by doubles are never omitted, but are recited at the end of the Mass, instead of St. John's gospel; and also that a commemoration of the Sunday, by its proper collect, secret, and post-communion, is always made immediately after the collect, &c., of the festival.

As it sometimes happens that a double is transferred to some future vacant day, on account of the octave of some festival of higher rank intervening, then the difficulty of finding out the day on which such transferred festival is celebrated, as well as the other principal difficulties regarding the service, may be easily removed by consulting the following DIRECTORY, as a guide to the morning as well as the evening service of the Church:

1. The office of every day is either double, semi-double, simple, or feria.

Of doubles (so called because the anthems are repeated entire, both before and after the psalms) some are of the first class, marked thus in the calendar: 1st cl.; others of the second class, and are marked thus: 2d cl.; others are greater doubles, marked gr. d.; others common doubles, marked d.

2. Doubles are kept on the day marked in the calendar, unless they fall on some Sunday of the first or second class, some privileged feria, or with certain octaves which take the place of the festivals; in which case they are transferred to the first day not marked either as a double or a semi-double.

Doub. 1st cl. denotes a great solemnity; doub. 2d cl. a less solemnity; greater double marks the feast to be of higher rite than a common double; double is the common and general rank of saints; semi-double is less than a double; simple shows the feast to be of the lowest rite; feria, is a week day having no feast; great fer. are weeks in Lent, Advent, &c.; Vig. vigil, is the eve of a great solemnity.

The Sundays of the 1st class which take place of all doubles are—

The first Sunday of Advent, first Sunday of Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Low, Whit and Trinity Sundays.

The Sundays of the second class which take place, also, of all doubles except those of the first class, and of which, in that case, a commemoration is made at Mass and in both Vespers, are the second, third, and fourth of Advent; sexagesima, and quinquagesima, the second, third, and fourth of Lent.

The ferias, which enjoy the same privileges as Sundays of the first class, are Ash-Wednesday, All Holy Week, Whitsun Eve, the whole octaves of Easter and Whitsuntide.

In like manner within the octave of Epiphany, no feast less than a first class can be kept.

On all other Sundays of the year, if a double occur, it is kept with a commemoration of the Sunday at Mass, and at Vespers also, except the following day be a feast of the first class.

3. A semi-double (so called because only a part of the anthem is said before each psalm) is marked in the calendar thus: d., and occurring on any Sunday whatsoever, is put off to the first vacant day; that is, the first day on which there is neither double nor semi-double marked in the calendar. The same is to be observed of all semi-doubles occurring within the octave of Corpus Christi.

4. Simples are never transferred; but if they fall on Sunday, or on any other day when the office cannot be said of them, a commemoration is made of the first vespers, and at Mass; unless it be a feast of the first class, (on which no notice is taken of simples,) or of the second class, in which case a commemoration of them is made in the Lauds, and at a low private Mass only.

5. The following ferias, called greater ferias, take place of all simples of which there is only a commemoration made at Mass, viz: the ferias of Advent and of Lent, the Ember-Days, and Tuesdays in Rogation Week. A commemoration is also made of the ferias of Advent, Lent, at Vespers and Mass, whatever feast happens; but of the Ember-Days and Tuesday in Rogation Week, only at Mass.

6. If a vigil occur on a feast of the first class, there is no commemoration made of it.

If a festival, that has a vigil, fall on a Monday, the Mass of the vigil is said on the foregoing Saturday, except the vigil of Christmas and of Epiphany.

If a vigil happen in Advent, the Mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the feria, except the vigil of Christmas.

If a vigil happen in Lent, or on an ember-day, the Mass is of the feria, with a commemoration of the vigil.

In the paschal time there is no office of vigil, except that of Ascension Eve, which, however, is no fast.

7. When several festivals have been translated from their proper days, they are afterwards to be kept in this order: first, those that are doubles, and then those that are semi-doubles; and among the doubles or semi-doubles, those whose proper days first occurred are to be kept first.

8. Coll. or Collect, signifies the oration or prayer. Upon all doubles one collect, secret or post-communion, only, is said; except they fall on a Sunday, or within the same octave, or upon some vigil, or in the time of Lent or Advent, or except it occurs with some simple; in all such cases, two collects, &c., are said; one of the double, the other of the Sunday, octave, &c.

Upon Sundays, and all semi-doubles, are said three collects, secrets or post-communions; excepting Sundays which occur within an octave, on which are said two collects, &c., one of the Sunday, the other of the octave.

The second and third collects, secrets, and post-communions, to be said on Sundays and semi-doubles in the different seasons of the year, are specified in their proper places.

Upon semi-doubles occurring within octaves, or on vigils, &c., the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are a commemoration of the octave or vigil; and the third of the B. V. M., but within the octaves of the Blessed Virgin, the third is of the Holy Ghost.

On semi-doubles in Advent, the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are the collect, &c., of the foregoing Sunday; the third of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Upon simples and ferias three collects, &c., are said; but if the priest please he may say in addition others, to be taken out of the divers prayers in the common.

9. When the bishop of a diocese appoints a collect to be said at Mass, it is to be placed after the collects of the day, and cannot be substituted for the collect which is marked ad lib. This prayer prescribed by the bishop, is said at all Masses, except that of the first class, and conventual and high Mass of second class; at low Mass of 2 cl. it may be said or omitted. It is omitted also on Christmas Eve, Vigil of Pentecost, Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, and Holy Saturday.

10. Upon week days which have no proper office, nor any saint's day occurring thereon, the Mass is of the foregoing Sundays.

11. Upon days within octaves, when no proper Mass is assigned, the Mass is said as on the feast, with three collects, &c. N. B.—The days within octaves are kept as semi-doubles only.

12. The collect of the B. V. M., within octaves on vigils and on semi-doubles within paschal time, is found in the votive Mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary, from Advent to Christmas the collect of the B. V. M. is read in the Mass of first Sunday of Advent, from Christmas to Candlemas the collect of the Blessed Virgin, as in the Mass of the Circumcision.

13. The Collects for Church and Pope are seen in the Mass of the first Sunday of Advent. One only of them is recited at the choice of the priest, generally they are said in turn, when mentioned in the Directory. The Collect of the Pope is said on the anniversary days of his creation and coronation; the creation here signifies his election to the sovereign Pontificate.

14. The words ad lib. signify that one is at liberty to recite any of the occasional collects or prayers, found towards the end of the missal.

15. The Gospels assigned to Sundays are never omitted. Wherefore if a double be kept on a Sunday, at the end of Mass is read the gospel of the Sunday, instead of that of St. John; and the same is observed when a double or semi-double is kept on any day in Lent, or on a vigil or ember-day.

16. The Gloria in excelsis is said at Mass, whenever the Te Deum has been said after Matins; except at Mass on Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday, when the Gloria is said though the Te Deum is omitted in the office. The Gloria is omitted in Masses for the dead, in votive Masses, even during the Paschal time or an octave, except in the Mass de B. Maria in Sabbato, or de Angelis, or when the votive Mass is said for an important object or some public affair of the Church, and without the purple vestments.

17. Low Masses votive or of requiem for the dead, cannot be celebrated on Sunday or on a double feast. They are also prohibited from the Vigil of Christmas to the octave-day of the Epiphany inclusively, and on Ash-Wednesday; also, from Palm-Sunday to Low-Sunday inclusively; moreover, from the Vigil of Pentecost to Trinity Sunday included, and during the octave of Corpus Christi.

18. High Masses of requiem for the dead, where the body is not present, are forbidden on double feasts; but where the body is present, they may be celebrated on Sundays (provided the parochial Mass be not omitted) and on doubles, even of the first class, which are not festivals of obligation. But these Masses, even when the body is present, are prohibited on the Nativity, Epiphany, and Ascension of our Lord, Easter-day, Pentecost, Corpus Christi, Assumption of the B. V. Mary, All-Saints, and the three days before Easter; also, on the feast of the principal patron, that of the titular saint, and such festivals as are celebrated with much solemnity.

19. The offices of the Sacred Passion, which are marked for the different Fridays of Lent, are ad libitum; that is, they may be recited by those who wish, but there is no obligation to do so. The same is to be said of the office of the M. Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays, and that of the Imm. Conception of the B. V. Mary on Saturday, during the year. But if any one of these offices be omitted, the office occurring on the day according to the rubrics, should be recited.

20. In the office of the B. V. Mary and during the octave, the hymns conclude with the strophe, Jesu tibi sit gloria, Qui natus es, &c.; and in the Respons. at Prime, is said Qui natus es, &c., unless otherwise marked. Also, from the first vespers of Christmas to the first vespers of Epiphany, on the feast of the Holy Name of Jesus, and during the octave Corpus Christi. The same is observed in the office of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays, and that of the B. V. Mary on Saturdays, from Complin of the preceding day (if even a commemoration of these offices be made) until None inclusively.

21. The Litany of the Saints, prescribed in the Office, is to be said on the Rogation days, and on the 25th of April, (St. Mark's day,) even though an extraordinary festival occur on any of these days. The usual privilege of anticipating the Lauds does not apply to the recitation of the Litany of the Saints, which must be said on the day for which it is appointed.

ROGATION DAYS.—When the Diocese of Vienne, in the fifth century, had been dreadfully afflicted by incessant earthquakes, incursions of wild beasts, &c., &c., St. Mammertus, its bishop, experienced such happy effects from the public supplications he had appointed for the ceasing of these terrible calamities, that the same pious custom extended itself gradually over the whole Western Church; and hence it is, that on the three days preceding the Feast of the Ascension, the Litanies are sung in solemn procession in Catholic countries, that the wrath of God being appeased by the prayers of his Church, we may avert those punishments which are justly due to our sins.

ST. MARK'S DAY.—A dreadful plague having broken out at Rome, anno 589, which carried off a great number of the people, and among the rest Pope Pelagius, who then sat in St. Peter's Chair, St. Gregory, his successor, appointed public prayers for appeasing the anger of God, the happy effects of which became so evident, by the immediate cessation thereof, that the same pious custom has been ever since continued.

Dioceses of the United States.

THE PROVINCE OF BALTIMORE

Comprises the Dioceses of Baltimore, Charleston, Erie, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Richmond, Savannah and Wheeling, with the Vicariate Apostolic of East Florida, and extends over the District of Columbia, and the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, and the eastern section of Florida.

By a decree of the S. Cong. of Propaganda, confirmed by His Holiness Pius IX on 25 July, 1858, the prerogative of place is granted to the See of Baltimore, so that in councils, assemblies, and meetings of every kind, precedence is given to the Archbishop of Baltimore for the time being, and the seat of honor above any Archbishops of these Provinces that may be present, without regard to the order of promotion or consecration.

VICARIATE APOSTOLIC OF FLORIDA.

Comprises East, Middle and South Florida.

The State of Florida, excepting that part which lies West of the Apalachicola River, was erected into a Vicariate Apostolic by a Bull of His Holiness, bearing date of January 9, 1857.

VICAR APOSTOLIC.

Rt. Rev. AUGUSTIN VEROT, D.D., consecrated April 25, 1858, Bishop of Danube in part.

CHURCHES AND CLERGY.

St. Augustine, St. Augustine's.

Rt. Rev. Augustin Verot, D. D.

Rev. Edmund Aubril, C.P.M., Rev. Benedict Madeore, C.P.M.

Jacksonville, Immaculate Conception, Rev. William J. Hamilton.

Fernandina, Nassau Co. This is a rapidly growing town, where there is a church in process of erection. Attended from St. Augustine.

Key West Island, St. Mary, Star of the Sea, vacant. A priest is much needed here, who would find a very good support. During the vacancy the Jesuits of Cuba have been invited to attend it monthly.

Middleburgh, or Black Creek, Duval Co. There is a small chapel, attended monthly from Jacksonville.

Mandarin, Duval Co. A church will be built here this fall, attended monthly from St. Augustine.

Palatka, Putnam Co., St. Monica's. This little church was built here last summer. Attended from St. Augustine.

Tallahassee. There is here a brick church, which is vacant. It is visited occasionally from Apalachicola and St. Augustine.

Tampa, Hillsboro' Co. A church here is in process of erection. Attended occasionally from St. Augustine.

Tortugas Island. The United States are building here an extensive fort. Visited during the winter, on account of the many Catholics engaged on the works.

There are other stations: St. John's Beach, Diego, Moccasin Branch, &c., which are attended occasionally.

INSTITUTIONS.

St. Augustine has a school for boys, and one for girls, under the patronage of the Church. Steps have been taken to have an academy under the direction of the Sisters of Mercy.

St. Augustine's Beneficial Society counts many members from the city and country.

A Library Association has been lately established among the youths of St. Augustine.

A Society of St. Cecilia has also been lately organized.

REMARKS.—The Bishop has had no time yet to visit his extensive diocese. Any zealous and disinterested missionary will be highly welcome here, and will find a rich harvest of merits. St. Augustine has a large majority of Catholics, and is in fact a Catholic town. It has a delightful climate, remarkably healthy: the land, which can be had in its vicinity for one or two dollars per acre, will repay the industrious Catholic settler who comes with a moderate capital. The Indian war having been brought to a close, it is expected that Florida will be settled rapidly; indeed its climate, which is moderate all the year round, invites specially those who would screen themselves from the tortures of the interminable winters of the North.

In Louisville there are three Conferences of St. Vincent de Paul, established at the Cathedral and at the chapels of St. John the Evangelist and St. Patrick. The members labor with great zeal and are doing much good. B. J. Webb, Esq. is the President of the Society.

There are also in the city various other charitable societies of both men and women organized in the different churches, under the direction of the Reverend Clergy.

The Sodalities for young men and for young women, as well as for boys and girls, at the Cathedral, are in a highly flourishing condition, and they afford much edification. There are similar Sodalities at St. Patrick's.

There is likewise in the Cathedral congregation, with the approbation of the Bishop, a Catholic Institute for promoting library culture among young men.

There are also Parochial Schools for boys and girls established in all the Congregations of the city, in which about two thousand children receive the benefits of a sound Christian education.

INSTITUTIONS.

A community of Reformed Franciscans of the stricter observance have lately established a residence at Teutopolis, Effingham Co., Illinois. They form a branch of the Westphalian Province of this Order. The community consists of three fathers, Rev. Damian Henewig, O.S.F. Superior; Rev. Servatius Altmicks, O.S.F., Rev. Capistran Zwing, O.S.F., and four lay brothers.

This diocese having been recently erected, not much could as yet be done towards establishing charitable or literary institutions. A Convent will soon be ready for use at Belleville, St. Clair Co.

St. Joseph's Ursuline Convent and Young Ladies' Academy, 6th street, Springfield, Illinois. This house was established 22d August, 1857, by a colony from the well known institute of the Ursuline Nuns, near Fayetteville, Brown Co., Ohio. The community consists of 4 professed sisters, 2 novices, and 1 postulant; Sister Mary Joseph Woulfe, Mother Superior. The Sisters have bought a spacious house for their Boarding School and Academy. The course of instruction embraces all the branches usually taught in such institutes. Connected with the Academy is a Day and Free School. Number of pupils, about 60.

SCHOOLS.

Parochial Schools are attached to most of the churches in the diocese. There is a school for German and English in Alton, attended by about 70 children. Schools are connected with the Churches of St. Boniface and St. Lawrence, at Quincy. There are schools in Belleville, Springfield, Hanover, Teutopolis, Waterloo, Greencreek, St. Liborius, Highland, Effingham, Centreville, Columbia, and several other places. German schools chiefly, are in operation throughout the diocese.

Clerical Students.—There are students for the Diocese of Alton at All Hallows, Ireland; Mt. St. Mary's of the West, Cincinnati; Carondelet, St. Louis; Francis of Sales, Milwaukee; St. Thomas, Kentucky. Total number of students, 19.

Charitable Societies.—There exists in Quincy, Adams Co., Illinois, a society of men called St. Aloysius Orphan Society, which is incorporated. It numbers from 400 to 500 members, of whom each pays monthly 10 cents, for the support of orphan children. They possess property and means, and intend, after some time, to erect an Orphan Asylum.

Religious and Pious Associations.—It is the wish of the Rt. Rev. Bishop that the Archconfraternity of the Immaculate Heart of Mary for the conversion of sinners, which exists at the Cathedral in Alton, should also be organized at all the churches throughout the diocese. Application for faculties should be made to the Rt. Rev. Bishop, who obtained, at his late visit to Paris, all the necessary privileges from the venerable founder of the Confraternity. There are also Confraternities of the Holy Rosary and the Scapular formed in several congregations of this diocese. Besides these, societies for embellishing and furnishing the churches, and for paying the church debts, have been established at many churches in the diocese.

INDIAN MISSIONS.

Rev. F. Pierz and Rev. L. Lautishar are now engaged in establishing some missions amongst the Chippeway Indians, near Millo Lake, Sandy Lake, Beech Lake, etc. These missions promise to be very successful, on account of the good dispositions of these Indians, who have several times expressed their wishes to have some black gowns among them. The same success could be expected among the Sioux, the Assinibaines and the other tribes of this diocese, should some other clergymen come to devote themselves to such missions, and should also any pecuniary means be granted to support them.

INSTITUTIONS.

Order of St. Benedict.—This Order, chartered by an act of the Minnesota Legislature, A. D. 1857, numbers 8 fathers, engaged in missions; 10 lay brothers; 7 sisters, and several candidates. They constitute the Independent Priorate of St. Cloud, Stearns Co., Rev. Benedict Haindl, O.S.B., Prior.

Brothers of the Holy Family.—Some brothers of this religious institution, approved by the Holy See, came to St. Paul, four years ago, to take charge of the boys' schools, and also to establish a noviciate of their Order, which is calculated to be very useful for these new missions, as according to their constitutions, a single member can be sent along with a clergyman, as teacher, sacristan and catechist. They have the charge of a numerous free school, and of two select schools in the city of St. Paul. Brother Cyril, Director.

Sisters of St. Joseph.—These Sisters, who are established in this diocese since 1851, number now 18 members and several candidates. They have the charge of an hospital, two academies, and a free school for girls in the city of St. Paul.

St. Joseph's Hospital, at St. Paul, Ramsey Co., 9th street; Sister Seraphine, Superior. This hospital is a four-story stone building, situated on a fine location, given by the Hon. H. M. Rice. It affords room enough for a noviciate for the sisters, and for many patients who are taken care of, at low charges.

St. Joseph's Female Academy, Bench street, St. Paul, Ramsey Co., Sister Blanche, Directress.

St. Mary's Female Academy, at St. Anthony Falls, Hennepin Co., Sister Xavier, Directress.

Convent and Academy of the Benedictine Nuns, at St. Cloud, Stearns Co., Sister Willibalda, Directress.

Sisters of the Propagation of the Faith.—This new order of sisters has been established especially for the instruction of children amongst the numerous half-breeds, and the Indian tribes of the northern part of this diocese, as soon as their means will permit. They have now charge of St. Francis Xavier's Academy, at Pimbiua, on the Red River of the North, Dacotah Territory. Sister Francis Xavier, Superior.

Several pious and charitable associations have been organized in the diocese; amongst them, the Association for the Propagation of the Faith; the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, for the temporal and spiritual relief of the poor; and the Ladies of the Holy Rosary, who endeavor to relieve the poor widows and destitute orphans.

REPORT OF RT. REV. FATHER MARIA EUTROPPIUS, OF LA TRAPPE.

ABBAY OF OUR LADY OF LA TRAPPE, OF GETHSEMANI.

Near New Haven, Nelson Co., Kentucky.

This community is a branch of Melleray, near Nantes (Loire Inferieure), France, established in 1848, at Gethsemani, 15 miles from Bardstown, and one mile from the railroad between Louisville and Lebanon.

The Trappists Fathers have a free school, where all male children who present themselves are received and instructed without charge.

They are also building a church and monastery, which are far from completion, and are now delayed from want of means.

Notwithstanding their great poverty, they annually support and attend to the spiritual and physical needs of about 20 poor and sick laborers from the public works in the neighborhood.

There are in the Community 56 members; 17 of whom, including 10 priests, belong to the choir; the remaining 39 are lay brothers.

Rt. Rev. Father Maria Eutroppius, Abbot.

Obituary.

"It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins."—2 MACCAB. xii, 46.

PRELATES.

1858, Feb. 19. Right Rev. Mathias Loras, D.D., was born at Lyons, France, in July 1792, consecrated first Bishop of Dubuque, July 28, 1837, and died February 19, 1858. He was for fifteen years President of a College in France; for eight years a Missionary Priest at Mobile; and for twenty years Bishop of Dubuque.

The deceased prelate had several severe attacks of sickness within the two months previous to his death, but his last illness seemed to have been paralysis. The evening before his death he had retired to his room about eight o'clock, in his usual health, and in a few hours after he was found in an insensible condition on the floor, by Rev. Father McCabe, who had been attracted to his room by the moaning of the deceased. Every possible assistance was rendered, but without effect; he continued to sink until the following morning, when he calmly expired.

No sooner was the death of the venerable prelate announced, than crowds of sorrowing people thronged his house, anxious to pay their last sad tribute of respect to departed worth; young and old, rich and poor, Catholic and Protestant, seemed equally anxious to testify their respect for their father, friend, and benefactor. We think we state correctly, when we estimate that nine-tenths of the entire population of Dubuque, besides hundreds who live in the country, visited his remains during the two days he laid in state in the old cathedral, and certainly the manifestation there exhibited was most edifying. The body of the sainted Bishop was deposited inside the sanctuary, and in front of the altar of the new cathedral, which he had the happiness of seeing dedicated before his death.

The following facts are from the official report of the diocese of Santa Fe: John F. Ortiz was born in Santa Fe, N. Mexico, in 1798, of the most distinguished parentage. He made his studies in the college of Durango. He was ordained at Culiacan in 1822; was appointed pastor of San Juan de los Caballeros in 1823; and pastor of Santa Fe in 1825. In 1829, having won the highest reputation for piety and learning, he was named "Cura Proprio de Santa Fe." In 1832, he was appointed Administrator of New Mexico. In 1850, on the 24th of November, Bishop Lamy was consecrated and assumed the duties of Vicar Apostolic. The prejudice against citizens of the United States was then great, but Father Ortiz smoothed the access of the new Bishop, by receiving him with the most profound respect, by putting his own house at his disposal, and by accompanying him in the various journeys, which the wants of the diocese every where imposed. He continued pastor of Santa Fe until 1853, when he retired from all public exercises of his ministerial functions. He died of apoplexy on the 20th of January, 1858, in the 61st year of his age.

Rev. Stephen M. Avel was born in 1822 at Cabazat, Puy de Dome, France. His early youth was formed under the guidance of his uncle, pastor of a large parish and a most exemplary priest. He studied philosophy and theology in the Sulpitian Seminary of Mount-Ferrand, and was ordained in December, 1847. Several of his relatives had previously shed their blood for the faith; and some are still laboring in the most dangerous missions of Oceanica. The martyr spirit inflamed his heart also; and during the seven years of his priestly labors in France, he sighed only for more suffering and toil in foreign missions. In 1854, Rt. Rev. Dr. Lamy made an appeal to the young clergymen of the diocese of Clermont in behalf of New Mexico. Father Avel was one of the first to offer his services. He came immediately to this country, and was appointed pastor of Santa Fe. Here he devoted himself with great success to the glory of God and the salvation of souls. In July, 1858, he was sent to take charge of a large mission in the north eastern part of New Mexico, there to correct and counteract prevailing abuses and scandals. His piety and zeal aroused the opposition of the most abandoned; and his success in behalf of religion excited the hatred of the worst of his enemies. On the morning of August 3d, the feast of the finding of the relics of St. Stephen, Father Stephen Avel went to the church, heard confessions and offered the Divine Sacrifice. As soon as he received of the chalice, he felt that he was poisoned. Raising his crucifix, he offered himself to God; consecrated other wine, administered holy communion. He prayed a brief while before the shrines of Mary and Joseph; spoke of his happiness in dying on his patron's festival, and again prayed before the blessed sacrament. As the people pressed with tears around him, he said, "pray not for me, but for him who has poisoned me. May God forgive him as I do with all my heart." Taking his crucifix, he pressed it to his breast, and raising his eyes heavenward, died. A smile of confiding love rested on his features. He was thirty-six years of age.

In 1774 there were only NINETEEN PRIESTS in the United States (then Colonies).

In 1790 there was ONE BISHOP and TWENTY PRIESTS in the United States.

On the 7th of November, 1791, the first Clerical Synod in the United States was convened by Bishop Carroll. There were only twenty Priests present, probably very nearly the whole number of the clergy. Among these is recorded the name of Rev. Laurence Græstel, S.J., who was soon after appointed Coadjutor to Bishop Carroll. He died, before consecration, in the service of those suffering from yellow fever, at Philadelphia. His death is mentioned in a letter of Cardinal Antonelli, bearing date September 1st, 1794.

Rev. Leonard Neale was appointed Bishop of Gortyna, in part., erected by a Papal Brief, dated April 17th, 1795. He was consecrated on the 2d Sunday of Advent, December 7th, 1800.

There were then in the United States two BISHOPS and probably about FORTY PRIESTS.

In 1808 the See of Baltimore was made an Archbishopric, with four Suffragan Sees—Bardstown, Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

There was then (1808) two BISHOPS, SIXTY-EIGHT PRIESTS and EIGHTY CHURCHES. From that period a regular Summary has been kept, and generally published in the Metropolitan Almanac. We give its principal details.

CATHOLIC POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES.

On this interesting subject we can only repeat the words of the late experienced Editor of the Metropolitan Almanac:—"The figures of population in the table are those returned by the Most Rev. and Rt. Rev. Bishops: but as they are not complete, we forbear any hypothetical estimate of the total number of Catholics in the United States, in regard to which there exists so vast a difference of opinion. The subject, however, is one of great interest, and we respectfully suggest that the intrinsic difficulties which it presents, are by no means insurmountable. The ratios of births and deaths to the number of living in the United States, have been very accurately determined, as presented in the last census of the country, and might serve as the basis of a satisfactory estimate of the Catholic population. It is well known, that among Catholics few, if any, neglect to have their children baptized, and that they have these baptisms performed, and their dead buried, within their own Church, and consequently the baptisms and interments would be accurate exponents of the births and deaths. The only desirable information therefore for ascertaining the number of Catholics in the United States, is the number of baptisms or interments which have taken place among them in any given year, for instance, from August 1, 1855, to August 1, 1856. The question is, how are we to obtain this information. The only feasible plan that we can suggest, is the following. As all the Rev. Clergy, in cure of souls, keep a register of baptisms and burials, it will be very easy for them to forward to the bishops, at their request, by them to be transmitted to the publishers of the Almanac, the number that will have occurred from August 1st, 1855, to August 1st, of the present year. If this be done, or, if at the request of the bishops, those figures of baptisms or interments be communicated directly to the publishers of the Almanac before the 1st of September, the Catholic population of the United States can be furnished, with a reliable accuracy, in the following number of the work."—See Almanac of 1856.

AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS ABROAD.

The American College at Rome.

His present Holiness has purchased a large and convenient house and Church, lately occupied by the Nuns of the Visitation, and presented it to the Bishops of the United States for the Education of Ecclesiastical Students from America. To defray the expenses of fitting up this Institution, and supplying it with the men and the means of success, contributions are now solicited from the Catholics of the United States. Those who can appreciate the importance of this Institution, and who are blessed with the ability to aid its advancement, should communicate immediately with their respective Bishops, so that the American College at Rome may be opened at as early a period as possible.

College of the Immaculate Conception,
LOUVAIN, BELGIUM.

Continental Students intended for missions in this country, here receive ecclesiastical training.

Colleges and Academies.

St. Charles's College,

(PETIT-SEMINAIRE OF ST. SULPICE.)

NEAR ELLICOTT'S MILLS, MARYLAND.

This Institution pleasantly situated in a retired and healthy part of Howard county, Md., and founded by the venerable Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, is intended to give a Religious and Clerical Education to that class of youth exclusively, whose inclination, talents, and piety, give sufficient indications of a vocation to the ecclesiastical state. These indications are left to the decision of their Confessor, whose recommendation is required before they can be received.

The Rev. Clergy are respectfully reminded that application should be made to the President of St. Charles's College, by letter or otherwise, stating the age, proficiency, &c., of the Candidate, before presenting him for admission.

No one will be received under fourteen years of age.

Studies.—The Course of Instruction is a full Classical one, embracing all the Branches preparatory to the higher ecclesiastical studies, including Church and Bible Histories, Christian Doctrine, Plain chant, and Religious Ceremonies; also, French and German.

The Scholastic Exercises begin on the First Monday of September.

Terms, &c.—The terms for Board, Tuition, Bed and Bedding, Washing and Mending, Stationery, and use of Books, except German, are $100 for the whole year, payable invariably half-yearly in advance. On account of the lowness of the terms, the Treasurer is directed to see that Parents, Guardians, and others, are punctual in forwarding in advance the semi-annual pensions.

The students should come provided with sufficient changes of winter and summer clothing: six shirts, four pairs of drawers, six handkerchiefs, six pairs of stockings, four towels, at least two pairs of shoes, a cloak or overcoat for winter—all marked with their name. None of the above mentioned articles will be furnished by the institution, unless the requisite funds be previously deposited in the hands of the Treasurer, or unless the student himself pays for what cannot be easily procured from home.

On Sundays and Festivals, a black frock coat or sack coat and pantaloons of the same color, are expected to be worn by such as have not obtained permission to wear the cassock.

Georgetown College, D. C.

In the year 1785, several gentlemen—the principal of whom was Rev. Jno. Carroll, afterwards the first Archbishop of Baltimore—formed a design of building “An academy at Georgetown, Potomac River, Maryland.” In 1789 the first house was built; in 1792 the schools commenced; and in 1798 we find it “The College of Georgetown, Potomac River, State of Maryland.” In 1815 Congress raised it to the rank of an University.

In May, 1851, “The Medical department of Georgetown College” was opened in Washington city, D. C.

The College is situated on the northern bank of the Potomac, and commands a full view of Georgetown, Washington, the Potomac, and a great part of the District of Columbia. Its situation is peculiarly healthy.

The Academic year commences on the first Monday of September, and ends about the middle of July. The Collegiate course of studies occupies, generally, seven years, inclusive of the preparatory classes, which last three years, unless the proficiency of the student authorize an abbreviation of the term.

Preparatory Department.—Experience has proved to us the necessity of separating the very young students from the seniors. Arrangements have accordingly been made to effect this, and afford the tender youth, committed to our care, such attention as their age requires. A large and spacious building has been erected for the accommodation of the younger students. Their dormitory, play-grounds, study-hall, class rooms, &c. &c., will be entirely distinct from those of the others, and officers especially assigned, will attend them in their pastimes and preside over their studies.

V Rev. B. Villiger, S.J., Provincial of Maryland, resides in the College.

Mount St. Mary's College,

NEAR EMMITSBURG, MARYLAND.

Mount St. Mary's College is situated at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains, in Frederick county, Maryland. The site is peculiarly beautiful, healthy and far removed from the distractions and moral dangers of a city.

The Institution was founded by the Rev. John Dubois, afterwards Bishop of New York, and for many years conducted by him and the Rev. Simon Gabriel Bruté, subsequently the First Bishop of Vincennes. It was raised to the rank and invested with the powers and privileges of a College, by the Legislature of Maryland, in the year 1830, under the Presidency of the Rev. John B. Purcell, now the First Archbishop of Cincinnati.

Studies commence on the 24th of August, and end on the last Wednesday of June. The students form but one family with their Professors and Tutors, by whom they are carefully instructed in the doctrines, and trained to the practice of the Catholic Religion.

The studies are divided into two departments; the preparatory lasting from two to three years; and the collegiate, requiring four years. The commencement is held on the last Wednesday in June. Degrees are then conferred and premiums and honors publicly assigned.

All who enter the College are required to follow its prescribed course of studies.

During the two last years of the Collegiate course, in addition to Classics, Belles Lettres, Chemistry and the higher Mathematics, particular attention is given to Logic and Metaphysics, and to the study of Ethics, including the fundamental principles of civil, political and international law. Book-keeping may be studied by young men preparing for business; also, Civil Engineering, Agricultural and Medical Chemistry, Geology, &c.

Expenses.—Board and Tuition, including the entire classic and scientific course, also Doctor's salary, washing and mending, bed and bedding, $200 per annum—viz: $100 for each half-year, always payable in advance.—Music and Drawing are extra charges, each $40 per annum, for those who wish to learn them. Those who remain at College during the whole vacation are charged $25 extra, and for any part of it more than a week, in proportion.

Rev. John McCaffrey, D. D., President, Professor of Rhetoric and Latin.

“ John McCloskey, A. M., V. Pres. and Treasurer, Professor of Greek.

“ William McCloskey, A. M., Professor of Moral Theology, &c.

“ Henry S. McMurdie, A. M., Prof. of Moral Philosophy and Logic.

“ John Hickey, A. M., Professor of English.

Caspar J. Beleké, A. M., LL.D., Professor of German and Spanish, Adj. Professor of Latin.

Daniel Beltzhoover, A. M., Graduate of West Point Military Academy, Prof of Mathematics & Civil Engineering, Chemistry & Nat. Philosophy.

John G. Heffernan, A. M., Adj. Professor of Greek and Latin.

John Koch, A. M., Adj. Prof. of German & Instructor in Greek & Latin.

James E. McIntyre, A. B., Instructor in Greek and Latin.

Henry Dielman, Mus. Doc., Professor of Music.

James D. Hickey, Professor of Drawing and Writing.

There are, moreover, four Prefects of Discipline, and a numerous corps of assistant instructors.

The spacious buildings lately erected and but recently occupied, and the marked improvements in almost every department of the College, have added greatly to its means of accommodating students, and offering them rare advantages in the prosecution of their studies.

REV. H. DE NECKERE, S.J., President.

College of Loyola,

CORNER OF CALVERT AND MADISON STREETS, BALTIMORE.

This Institution, conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus, was opened for the reception of Students September 15th, 1852, and raised to the rank of University by the Legislature of Maryland, April 13th, 1853.

The course of studies embraces the Latin, Greek, French, Spanish, and English Languages, Mathematics, Mental and Natural Philosophy and Chemistry.

There are competent Professors of the French and Spanish languages, among whom the Students are divided according to their proficiency.—The Italian and German languages will be taught if required, but will form extra charges.

The Students have an hour and a quarter every day allowed to the study of Mathematics. Those who are not sufficiently advanced to commence Algebra, are divided into separate classes of Arithmetic, and have distinct professors. In the first class, Book-keeping is taught.

In Philosophy the Students learn Logic, Metaphysics and Ethics. The lectures in these branches are delivered in Latin, and a daily discussion (in Latin) is held on the lecture. In Natural Philosophy, Astronomy and Chemistry, the lectures are given in English. Once every month, the Students of this department have public exercises before the Faculty to test their improvement.

During the whole course of studies particular attention is paid to Composition, particularly English.

The Academic year commences on the 1st Monday of September and ends about the middle of July.

Terms.—Tuition per annum, including the Latin, Greek, French, English, and Spanish languages, Mathematics, etc., $60, (payable quarterly,) Stationary, $5, (payable quarterly,) Fuel during the winter season, $2.

REV. W. F. CLARKE, S.J., President.

A. M. D. G.

Gonzaga College,

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C.

This College was incorporated on the 1st of May, 1858, by Congress, under the name of "THE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS OF GONZAGA COLLEGE." The same bill that gives it a legal existence, charters it "to have and enjoy the power and faculty of conferring and confirming upon such pupils in the institution, or others, whom, by their proficiency in learning or other meritorious distinctions, they shall think entitled to them, such degrees in the liberal arts and sciences as are usually granted in colleges."

The course of studies is substantially the form of teaching ("Ratio studiorum") followed for more than three hundred years in the Jesuit Colleges in Europe, and since 1790 in our own country. This form of instruction, according to its original intention, is to be adapted to time and circumstances.

While the teaching of the Classics will be adhered to, every attention will be paid to the natural sciences. In addition to exercises and compositions in English and French, also, daily lessons in Arithmetic and Mathematics, a double course of lectures on the Physical Sciences will be given to the more advanced students twice a week during the winter term. The course for the incoming scholastic year will be on Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, and Geology.

Besides the Classical and scientific, there is in the College a Preparatory Department, the object of which is to qualify pupils for the higher studies.

No one is admitted even to the Preparatory who cannot read and write. There is, however, a class of Caligraphy for the younger students.

The College is intended for day scholars only, irrespective of creed or religious profession.

No attendance at our religious exercises is exacted or expected of non-Catholic students.

No one will be admitted without producing testimony of good moral character.

When a scholar presents himself for admission, he is examined by the perfect of studies, and placed in that class for which his prior attainments may have fitted him.

There are two examinations in the year, in February and in June. At any time during the year, and particularly at the first examination, if any one be found capable of passing to a higher class he will be promoted, and such promotion will be equivalent to the honors of the class left.

Quarterly reports are sent to parents or guardians.

No deduction will be made from a quarter begun, except in case of sickness or expulsion.

Ursuline Acad'y of the Immac. Conception,

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA.

The ladies who have charge of this institution being specially devoted to the education of young ladies, and each member having received a long and careful training for that purpose, the schools under their charge, as well in the various countries of Europe, as in the United States, have never failed to win and to retain the confidence of parents and guardians.

The position of Columbia, so readily approached by railroads, and its well established healthfulness, cannot fail to enhance the claims of their Academy.

No distinction of religion will be made in the admission of pupils, but for the maintenance of good order, all will be required to attend the exercises of divine worship prescribed for the Academy.

The scholastic year is divided into two sessions, the first commencing in September and ending in February, the second commencing in February and ending in July.

The scholastic year will close with a distribution of premiums, at which parents and guardians are requested to attend.

Mount St. Mary's of the West,

NEAR CINCINNATI, OHIO.

This institution was designed to supply the want of a high order of education felt by the Catholics of the Great West. It is under the control of the Secular Clergy, selected, in the first instance, by the Most Rev. Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati.

The course of instruction is, either Classical or Commercial, according to the option of parents or guardians.

The Classical course comprises the Greek, Latin, and modern languages; Rhetoric; Logic; Mathematics, and its application to Surveying, Astronomy, and Natural Philosophy; and Chemistry.

The Commercial course embraces the lower Mathematics—Surveying; Civil Engineering, Book-keeping, and all else that pertains to a thorough business education.

Students in either department may attend the Classes of modern languages, in which particular attention is given to instruction in French and German.

The discipline of the College is paternal and vigilant—the object being to guide rather than to drive the pupils along the path of duty.

The domestic arrangements—kitchen, infirmary, and Laundry, are under the direction of the Sisters of Charity.

The institution has the cordial approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop and Clergy of the diocese of Cincinnati, and the Most Rev. Archbishop of New Orleans.

The names of the members of its Faculty are a sufficient guaranty of the excellence of the education it will afford to the pupil.

St. Vincent's Academy,

CEDAR GROVE, NEAR CINCINNATI.

This Institution, designed for the instruction of young ladies in all the branches of a polite education, is under the care of the Sisters of Charity; it is situated three miles north-west of Cincinnati, within a short distance of Mount St. Mary's Theological Seminary, and is, at all times, easily accessible from the city. The position is retired and beautiful. A thick grove of cedar and locust trees separate the grounds of the Institution from the public road, securing for it the enjoyment of that privacy which is so favorable to study. Extensive and picturesque lawns surround the building, and afford every facility to the pupils for pleasant and healthy exercise.

SISTER MARGARET C. GEORGE, Mother Superior.

St. Mary's Boarding School for Boys,

CLEVELAND, (WEST SIDE,) OHIO.

Under the Direction of the Brothers of Mary.

The design of this Institution is to supply a want long felt by the Catholic population of the country, especially those of moderate means. It gives them an opportunity to procure for their sons, at a comparatively trifling expense, a solid moral and intellectual education, such as will fit them for commercial pursuits.

To place the benefits of the Institution within the reach of the greater number, the charge will be only $80 00 per session of ten months, for boarding and tuition, payable in advance; $4 00 for bed and bedding, if furnished by the Institution. Washing, mending, and stationeries form extra charges.

The Brothers will take from farmers, in payment for their boys, such product of the farm as can be used in the house.

The first session will commence on the first Monday of September.

St. Stanislas' Preparatory College,

WHITE SULPHUR P. O., SCOTT COUNTY, KY.

This institution, beautifully situated on a farm of 200 acres, is destined for the training and education of Catholic Boys, from the age of eight to twelve. Experience has shown that the mixture in our Colleges, of boys of every age and size, is more or less injurious to the younger portion. The Directors of St. Stanislas' College are not ambitious of having a crowded house—they do not wish to receive boys who are incorrigible at home—they wish to have good children, and they pledge themselves to use every exertion to return them to their parents improved in virtue and learning.

All the branches of a thorough English and classical education will be taught, so far as the age and capacity of the boys require.

The Scholastic year consists of one session, which commences on the first Monday of September, and ends on or about the 15th of July. No student will be admitted for a less time than a full session.

Students, who take the cars at Louisville, can stop at Frankfort, whence in less than two hours they can reach the College. Students who wish to take the cars at Covington, can apply at the Bishop's residence for all information respecting the mode of reaching the college.

This institution is under the direction of two Clergymen, assisted by several competent teachers.

A respectable French Lady will have a motherly care of the children—attend to their clothes and cleanliness of their persons.

REV. E. H. BRANDTS, President.

Preparatory Seminary of St. Thomas,

NEAR BARDSTOWN, KENTUCKY.

The object of this Institution, conducted by clergymen of the Diocese of Louisville, is to afford to such youths as feel inclined for the Ecclesiastical State, an opportunity to ascertain and pursue their vocation. The Most Rev. Archbishop, and the Right Rev. Bishops of the Province of Cincinnati, when assembled in Council, in May, 1854, adopted it as the Preparatory Seminary for the whole Province. It is therefore under their special patronage, and the rules, plan of instruction, &c., are subject to their approbation.

The Course of Studies is a full Classical one, embracing Latin, Greek, English, German, French (with all the branches connected therewith), Mathematics, Mental and Natural Philosophy, including the Elements of the other Natural Sciences.

There is but one Session of 10 months, beginning the first Monday of September.

Terms.—Board, Tuition in all the Branches, Washing, Mending, Bedding, Books and Stationery..... $35 00

Payments to be made invariably half-yearly in advance.

Clothing will be furnished to such students as will be authorized by their Bishops or parents. Strict economy will be observed in that department.

For their own benefit, and that of the Orphan Asylum, with which the Seminary is connected, the students will be employed one or two hours in teaching or otherwise in the institution.

Applicants are received from any part of the Union. In all cases a recommendation from their Bishop, or their immediate Pastor, is required.

For further particulars the public are referred to the Right Rev. Bishop of Louisville, to the Most Rev. Archbishop of Cincinnati, and the other Prelates of the Province.

Congregation of the Holy Cross.

This new religious order was approved by the Holy See in 1856. It consists of three branches—the Priests, Brothers and Sisters, who were all originally united in one congregation on the model of several other religious communities, and remained so, until the approbation of the church was obtained, when the Holy See directed the two first branches to a more complete fusion: separating at the same time the third branch, which now forms a community distinct in all temporal interests, but mutually aiding each other, by temporal and spiritual services; and where Colleges of the Society are established, the Sisters of the Holy Cross, residing in separate and detached houses, have the care of the culinary, wardrobe, and infirmary departments.

The Fathers of the congregation are especially consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus—they are exclusively devoted to missions and the education of youth. The brothers consecrated to the Holy Heart of St. Joseph are devoted to manual labor and teaching. They have charge of schools, principally composed of the children of the poor, of Orphan Asylums, and manual labor schools. The congregation have different schools, parishes and manual labor asylums and colleges in various parts of the Union—chiefly in Chicago, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Columbus, O., Hamilton, O., Toledo, O., Fort Wayne, Michigan city, &c.

Number of priests, 12; seminarians, 9; brothers professed, 67; novices, 38; postulants, 11.

The provincial establishment at Notre Dame is composed of the University of Notre Dame, and the novitiates of the brothers and priests. The province of Notre Dame comprises all the establishments of the order in the United States, excepting those of Louisiana.

VERY REV. E. SORIN, Provincial.

University of Notre Dame, Chartered, 1844.

The University of Notre Dame, situated in the lovely valley of the St. Joseph, one mile from South Bend, on the Michigan S. R. R., renders it easy of access from every part of the Union. The plan of studies embraces a thorough collegiate course; besides advantages for the acquisition of modern languages and music not usually offered in American colleges. A separate course is opened for students destined for commercial or mechanical pursuits.

The disciplinary government is mild yet sufficiently energetic to preserve the most perfect order and regularity. The morals and general deportment are strictly guarded, and the comfort and personal habits of the pupils receive the same attention as in the most refined family circle. Only conciliatory means of correction are used, but if the student prove insensible to these, he is promptly dismissed.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

Experience having proved the necessity of separating the younger students from the seniors, arrangements have been extensively and thoroughly made for this, giving to them study rooms, play grounds, dormitory, &c. for their exclusive use. To make this department complete, all juveniles under ten years of age, are placed under the care of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, being in every respect separate from the others.

Catholic parents may rest assured that the utmost care will be taken that their children comply regularly with their religious studies, and no efforts be spared in instructing them fully in the principles and obligations of their holy religion.

There are in the college various societies of students, formed for different objects—the St. Aloysius, a literary society; St. Cecilia, a musical association; the Confraternity of the Nocturnal Adoration, and the Arch-Confraternity. There is also a military company, composed of the seniors, who have their regular parades, the arms and accoutrements being furnished by the State.

Missionaries' Home.

This is a new addition to the other branches already existing at Notre Dame; with the sanction of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Luers, the congregation of Holy Cross have fully determined to commence their much and long desired house for aged and infirm missionaries.

St. Mary's of the Immaculate Conception.

This Institution forms the provincial establishment of the Sisters of the Holy Cross in the United States; connected with it they have various houses throughout the Union, consisting of schools and asylums, in which one hundred and ninety-six Religious are employed.

The Sisters of the Holy Cross, consecrated to the Immaculate and sorrowful Heart of Mary, are devoted to the instruction of female youths in all ranks of society. Educating in their academies those whose position in life require all the advantages of the most refined and accomplished education; instructing in their manual labor schools the children of the poor and laboring classes, by training them to habits of industry and teaching them the different trades and household duties, necessary for their sphere in life, at the same time giving them all the advantages of a good religious and English education. The Sisters of the Holy Cross are also charged with parochial schools and orphan asylums for girls, and also for boys under the age of ten years. After that age the boys are transferred to the orphan asylums and manual labor schools of the Brothers of the Holy Cross.

The care of the sick forms another feature in the vocation of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, and in the united duties of teaching and consoling the afflicted the spirit of the congregation combines the different vocations of the Ursuline and the Sisters of Charity.

The establishment of St. Mary's of the Immaculate Conception contains the Novitiate, numbering: novices, 58; postulants, 12; and professed, 26; a manual labor school for young girls, and St. Mary's Academy.

St. Mary's Academy, incorporated 1855.

The grounds attached to St. Mary's are very extensive and beautifully laid out, affording every facility for exercise. Bathing in the river, riding on horse-back, and calisthenics, form some of the means used to promote the health and happiness of the pupils.

BALTIMORE.

NUNN'S & CLARK'S PIANOS are so well known throughout the country for the past 35 years, that it is almost needless to say anything in their praise: nevertheless, the improvements made in these PIANOS in the past two years have placed them, in every point of excellence, in advance of any others, and the fact is being daily corroborated by all disinterested persons.

The tone is full, deep, pure, and exquisitely sweet and mellow; the hammers being thickly coated, this beauty of tone will be permanent. By use the Instrument will improve, the tone becoming gradually more brilliant, without getting that thin, wiry, noisy tone, so disagreeable to a refined ear. The touch is exceedingly prompt and delicate; no labor or thumping is required to produce the tone, so that the most difficult passages can be executed with neatness and delicacy. As an accompaniment in singing, the quality of the tone is beautifully adapted to mingle with the voice, not being harsh and disagreeable to the ear.

Having had many years experience in selling Pianos from the most celebrated makers, the Subscriber is confident that by the late improvements made in these Instruments, they are the best and most perfect PIANOS now made.

Persons ordering by letter, may rely upon obtaining as fine and perfect an Instrument as if personally present.

MITCHELL'S SERIES OF GEOGRAPHIES.

MITCHELL'S PRIMARY GEOGRAPHY. A new edition, much enlarged, with new illustrations and maps. Square 12 mo. Price 42 cents.

MITCHELL'S INTERMEDIATE OR SECONDARY GEOGRAPHY. Quarto size, with forty maps, all beautifully colored, and more than a hundred engravings, illustrating the subject. Price 34 cents.

MITCHELL'S SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY AND ATLAS. Revised edition. The Geography is beautifully illustrated with a large number of engravings, mostly from original designs. The Atlas contains forty accurate maps all of which are colored. Price $1 20.

MITCHELL'S ANCIENT GEOGRAPHY AND ATLAS, being a system of Classical and Sacred Geography, embellished with engravings of remarkable events, views of ancient cities and various interesting antique remains. The Atlas contains twelve accurate maps, colored. Price $1 25.

MITCHELL'S GEOGRAPHICAL QUESTION BOOK, comprising Geographical Definitions and Questions to all the maps of Mitchell's School Atlas, to which is added an Appendix, embracing valuable tables in Mathematical and Physical Geography. 1 vol. 12 mo. Price 25 cents.

This series of Geographical Works has been before the public for several years, and been more widely circulated in the Schools in every part of the United States as well as in the British Possessions of North America, than any former publication. Its popularity is maintained, and, for its accuracy of details, its lateness, information and its superiority of maps, it has no rival.

The present edition contains an account of the recent discoveries of Dr. Kane in the Arctic Regions, and of Dr. Barth and his party, as well as those of Dr. Livingstone in Africa.

That this series may be worthy of all the patronage it has received, an active correspondence will be maintained with Voyagers, Discoverers and Travelers; the various Geographical Societies will be consulted, and all new and important facts obtained from these, and from other sources will be at once incorporated into the various works. From time to time, as heretofore, a complete and thorough revision of all the volumes will be made, that the series as a source of geographical knowledge and as favorite text-books, may be, as nearly as possible, FAULTLESS.

FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF BROOKLYN, NEW YORK.

OFFICES.

345 Fulton St., Opposite the City Hall, Brooklyn, 62 Wall Street, New York.

CASH CAPITAL, $200,000.

Capital and Assets,.....$290,632 01.....Safely Invested.

THIS COMPANY INSURES

Buildings, Merchandise, Household Furniture, Vessels
while in Port, Leasehold Interests and other Personal Property, against Loss by Fire.

LOSSES EQUITABLY ADJUSTED AND PROMPTLY PAID.

The benefits to be derived by the Public from Insurance against Loss by Fire are so great and numerous, when compared with its trifling cost, as to render it an imperative duty upon every one to avail themselves of the protection of THIS INSTITUTION, against the destructive ravages of Fire, which in a few moments may lay waste the fruits of a whole life of Industry.

THIS COMPANY

Would especially call the attention of the Prelates and Clergy of the Church to this Office, as presenting a favorable opportunity for Insurance against loss by Fire of Church Property and Institutions of Learning throughout the United States, either by applying through their agents in the principal Cities of the Union, or by addressing the Office direct in New York, which will receive prompt attention.

Our STEEL BLACK INK was tested by the Mechanics' Institute in 1836 with two other well known Inks, to show their comparative qualities for permanence. The result shows our Ink to be legible, while the others are much faded. Dr. Chilson's test, made in 1837, engraved fac-similes of which can be seen at our office, proves conclusively that our Black Ink is better adapted for State and County Records, and for all purposes where it is important that the writing should be legible fifty years hence, than any other Ink now before the public.

NEW YORK.“WONDERFUL PUMP.”

“By invitation, we, with many others, visited an exhibition of a Pump, in this city, on the 26th inst., and hereby certify that we saw it work, first by two men with both hands, then with one hand each, and lastly by one man alone, to the height of one hundred and fifteen feet perpendicular, with ease, regularity and rapidity. It raised water to this height in half a minute, from the bottom, and we see no reason why water may not be easily raised, by two men, one hundred and fifty or more feet.”

PATENT ELASTIC ANGLESEY LEG,

MANUFACTURED AT

No. 516 Broadway, opposite the St. Nicholas Hotel,

FORMERLY 24 SPRING STREET.

The Anglesey Leg has now been before the public 19 years, and is worn by persons in every State of the Union—some walking ten miles and upwards daily—many wearing pairs, and one person who has lost both knee joints, has walked 4 miles a day with these limbs for the past 8 years. This is the only case on record. As a substitute for a lost limb, the Anglesey Leg is light, strong, and always reliable, and is unrivaled only by nature. Some of the advantages obtained in my new patent, is the elastic side motion of the ankle joint, which imparts a peculiarly grateful and life-like feeling to the wearer, facilitating the walk, and closely imitating the natural limb. W. S. offers the above after 30 years' experience, in Europe and this country, as superior to any artificial leg known. Also, Selpho's PATENT ARTIFICIAL HAND. WORCESTER'S QUARTO DICTIONARY.

We have the pleasure to announce that Worcester's Quarto Dictionary is now rapidly approaching completion, and we hope to publish it in May next. It will be comprised in about eighteen hundred pages, and will contain a full vocabulary of the words now used in Literature, Art and Science.

In ORTHOGRAPHY the work will represent the best usage both in this country and in England. The PRONUNCIATION of all the words will be exhibited by a system of notation which will be easily understood.

The DEFINITIONS will be fully and accurately discriminated, and distinguished by numbers, and exemplified whenever practicable by citations from the best authors.

The treatment of SYNONYMS will form a very valuable feature of the work.

The ILLUSTRATIONS by wood cuts, of which there will be about twelve hundred, beautifully executed, will form another novel and useful feature of this Dictionary. There are many terms, the verbal explanation of which, however carefully made, will convey a much less correct idea of their meaning than a pictorial representation, and accordingly it is proposed to adopt this method of exemplifying the definitions in all such cases as seem to require it.

We propose to publish a library edition for subscribers. It will be printed on extra fine paper with large margin. To all who want an accurate, comprehensive and complete Dictionary of the English language, we say, WAIT AND GET THE BEST.

HILLARD'S READERS.

The attention of Teachers, School Committees, and of all interested in Education, is invited to the series of

READING BOOKS,

COMPILED BY HON. GEORGE S. HILLARD.

These Readers are superior in literary excellence, in the variety of the selections, in their moral tone, and in their intrinsic value, and contain more reading matter than any other series. They have recently been introduced into the Public Schools of Boston, Washington, Newport, R. I., and New York.

They are also in use, in whole or in part, in the Public Schools of Portland, Me., Providence, R. I., New Bedford, Lowell, Chicago, Ill., Cleveland, Ohio, St. Louis, Mo., New Orleans, La., Charlestown, Dorchester, Dedham, &c., &c., &c.

The selections for this series have been made with great care by one of the best read scholars in the country—a gentleman, the purity of whose literary taste, sound judgment and general fitness for the task are unsurpassed. In their preparation, the compiler has been aided by the experience and counsel of careful and successful teachers. Wherever the Readers have been examined by competent judges, they have been approved and strongly recommended, and wherever they have been introduced they have given satisfaction. Any of the series will be forwarded for examination to Teachers or School Committees, upon receipt of postage, or by express, free of charge. The following are the rates of postage of the several books of the series:

Hillard's First Primary Reader... 6 cents.	Hillard's Third Class Reader.... 18 cents.

WORCESTER'S SPELLING-BOOK.

We also respectfully inform Teachers and School Committees that we publish a PRONOUNCING SPELLING BOOK of the English Language. By J. E. Worcester, LL.D.

The orthography and pronunciation of Dr. Worcester's Dictionaries represent the best usage of the English language. The Spelling Book presents the same system, and Teachers throughout the country will welcome its appearance. It is the most accurate, comprehensive and complete Spelling Book ever published. Since its publication it has been introduced into use in the Public Schools of New York, Boston, Charlestown, Washington, D. C., West Roxbury, Thomaston, Waldoboro', Wiscasset, Dedham, Fall River, Newport, &c., &c., &c.

Copies will be furnished by mail for examination, on the receipt of 12 cents in postage stamps.

VALUABLE MUSIC BOOKS FOR THE CATHOLIC CHURCH. THE MEMORARE:

A Collection of Catholic Music, containing Six Masses, a Short Requiem Mass, Versers, and a Variety of Miscellaneous Pieces, suitable for Morning Service, and for Family or Private Devotion, with Accompaniments for the Organ or Piano Forte.—By Anthony Werner, Organist and Director of the Choir of the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston.

RECOMMENDATION BY THE BISHOP OF BOSTON.

After careful examination, we give willing approval to the publication of a new book of Catholic Sacred Music, entitled "The Memorare," compiled and, in part, composed by Prof. Anthony Werner, the Organist and Director in the Choir of our Cathedral of the Holy Cross, and published by Oliver Ditson & Co., of Boston. The judicious selection of pieces, their variety, and the purely religious character of the music, will, we doubt not, sufficiently commend the work to the public.

† JOHN BERNARD, Bishop of Boston.

EDITORIAL OPINION OF "THE METROPOLITAN."

"The pieces selected from the best composers, combine great brilliancy, power, beauty and harmony. The names of Witzka, Est, F. X. Schmidt, Cherubini, Palestrina, Stoeclin, and others equally celebrated, give assurance of the excellence of the music. Prof. Werner himself stands second to none in the country as an accomplished musician and choral director. There are six Masses, besides a mass of Requiem, and a large number of miscellaneous pieces, nearly all of which are arranged for four voices, yet in such a manner that some of them may be sung as duets or trios. Many of the very best of these compositions are, in all their magnificent harmony, so simple, that they may be easily learned by any choir. A more noble or useful collection of Catholic music has not, to our knowledge, ever been published; while at the same time it is the cheapest that has been issued from the American press. The fact that it is published with the sanction and special recommendation of the Right Rev. J. B. Fitzpatrick, Bishop of Boston, is sufficient to establish its claims to superior merit; since the distinguished prelate is known to possess an intimate acquaintance with "the art divine." We heartily recommend it to clergymen and leaders of choirs throughout the country."

The MEMORARE is published in one large volume of 272 pages, durably bound, and sold at the low price of $2.50 per copy, or $24 per dozen. Copies will be forwarded by mail, post-paid, on receipt of the price.

The following are published with Latin and English Text, arranged in Vocal Score with an accompaniment for Organ or Piano, ROSSINI'S STABAT MATER, $1.

MOZART'S TWELFTH MASS, $1.

BEETHOVEN MASS IN C, 75 cents.

HAYDN'S THIRD MASS IN D, 75 cts.

MOZART'S REQUIEM. (15th Mass) 75 cts.

DEMONTE'S Favorite Mass in B flat 67 cts.

Of the above the Boston Pilot remarks, "Unrivalled in majesty of style as superior classical compositions, these immortal works require no words of praise from us; but of this choice edition of them we may be allowed to speak, and freely pronounce it unsurpassed by any other, in clearness of print, convenience of form, and general correctness."

FRY'S STABAT MATER $4.

GUIGNARD'S MASS, $1.

ZIMMER'S MASS. For Soprano, Tenor and Bass, with Offertorium, Elevation, &c. $2.

In addition to the above the undersigned publish upwards of 400 volumes of Music, comprising Methods of Instruction for the Voice and every Instrument, Studies, Exercises, Operas, Oratorios and Collections of Standard Music, together with 25,000 pieces of Sheet Music, to which daily additions are made, and have for sale a complete Stock of Foreign Music. A Catalogue of our Publications, a volume of between 200 and 300 pages, will be sent free on application.

By MAIL.—Quantities of Music are now sent by mail, the expense being only about one cent apiece while the care and rapidity of transportation are remarkable. Those at a great distance will find the mode of conveyance not only a convenience, but a saving of expense in obtaining supplies. Books can also be sent by mail, at the rate of one cent per ounce. This applies to any distance under three thousand miles; beyond that double the above rates.

"GET THE BEST."

WEBSTER'S QUARTO DICTIONARY, UNABRIDGED.

WHAT MORE ESSENTIAL TO EVERY FAMILY, COUNTING ROOM, STUDENT, and indeed every one who would know the right use of language—the meaning, orthography and pronunciation of words, than a good English Dictionary!—of daily necessity and permanent value.

FROM ARCHBISHOP PURCELL.

"Cincinnati, Sept. 23, 1856.

"The Definitions of this book are so accurate and fair, wherever Catholic words are to be defined, that I respectfully suggest it should be a favorite with Catholics. Another reason is, that it is the fullest, most complete and only American Lexicon."

(Signed,)

† J. B. PURCELL,
Archbishop, Cincinnati.

FROM BISHOP O'REGAN.

"I believe Webster's Dictionary to be the most complete book of the kind we have in the English language. Its definitions in every department of Literature will be found most accurate and comprehensive.

"In Catholic Colleges and Schools, and with all Catholics, this should be a favorite. Not only is it free from bigotry and misrepresentation in all that regards our religion, but its definitions of Catholic words are so just, fair and accurate, and its statements on Catholic subjects so true and learned, that all Catholics may consult it with security and much advantage."

"WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY; 1456 pages, crown quarto. G. & C. MERRIAM, Springfield, Mass.

"This is decidedly one of the greatest works of the age, and places the name of Noah Webster on a level with that of Samuel Johnson. His Dictionary is, we think, all that a Dictionary ought to be. Its definitions are full, clear and accurate, and in most instances the classic references are given in order to establish the true meaning of each word. Every branch of science, every trade and profession, and every form of religion, have each their own peculiar terms clearly and accurately defined. Even the Catholic Church, so roughly handled and so ignorantly mis-represented by many of our would be lexicographers, is here, to the honor of the Author and Editor, be it said, fairly represented. Words and terms connected with Catholic doctrines and Catholic ceremonies are so correctly defined that Catholics may consult Webster without fear of seeing their religion traduced and misrepresented. We are pleased to see that some of the highest dignitaries in the American Church have signified their approbation of the work, and recommended it as a fair and very useful book for all our collegiate institutions. We have great pleasure in adding a humble tribute to such distinguished praise, and sincerely hope that the spirited publishers will be repaid for the vast outlay necessary in getting up such a work.

"All those who desire to have a complete knowledge of the English language, its various roots and derivations, will find it to their advantage to secure a copy of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, edited and revised by Dr. Goodrich.

"The work is already used in nearly all the public offices, schools and colleges throughout the United States, and in various parts of the British provinces it has been successfully introduced."—New York Tablet.

"We understand that in the revision of the work, a Catholic clergyman had the supervision of the definitions of words expressing points of Catholic dogmas, discipline, or ceremonial; and had we been told nothing of it, the extreme accuracy of those definitions would have led us to suspect it.

"Webster's orthography is good enough for us. His definitions—the substantial matter of a Dictionary—establish beyond question, his immense superiority as a lexicographer over any other of the English language. We are glad to see his work being universally adopted by Catholic Schools."—Catholic Telegraph.

TESTIMONIALS.

J. J. Butler's Writing Fluid. For sale at the principal Stationers in Cincinnati and elsewhere.

Mr. JAMES J. BUTLER, Agent, Cincinnati—DEAR SIR: We have, for a number of years past, been using Arnold's English Fluid as the best in the market; for some time past we have been using your RECORD FLUID, and take pleasure in stating that, in our opinion, it is fully equal to ARNOLD'S, and in some respects to be preferred. It has a more uniform depth of color when first used, and has NEVER MOLDED. When it has attained its deepest BLACK TINT, the color is fully equal to the best of Arnold's we have ever used, while the flow is about the same.

NEW AND BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED EDITION OF

THE HOLY CATHOLIC BIBLE,

Under the sanction and with the special approbation of the Most Rev. the Archbishops of New York, Baltimore, Cincinnati, New Orleans : the Right Rev. the Bishops of Boston, Philadelphia, Albany, Chicago, Buffalo, Hartford, and the Principal Bishops and Clergy of the United States, Great Britain and Ireland, and British North America.

The attention of the numerous and intelligent body of CATHOLICS throughout the United States, is respectfully invited to VIRTUE & Co's NEW AND BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED EDITION OF THE HOLY CATHOLIC BIBLE.

The great aim of the Publishers has been to produce an edition of THE SACRED VOLUME of unrivalled elegance, at a price that places it within the reach of all. With this view they have had engraved some of those wonderful works of art, on which many years of patient and untiring labor were bestowed by the GREAT PAINTERS OF ANTIQUITY, solely to illustrate and bring before the eye and the mind, those scenes and incidents in sacred writ and the history of the Church, which both abundantly furnish, so well suited to excite our admiration and to stimulate our piety, and in the number of these embellishments and their high character, they venture to say, this edition is without equal.

The Work will contain FORTY-SIX SPLENDID ENGRAVINGS and a beautifully illuminated Vignette Title printed in gold and colours, with an Ornamental Family Record. Published in monthly parts at 25 cents each, and supplied regularly to subscribers.

Theological Works, and Religious Articles generally,

739 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

P. O'SHEA, in submitting the following catalogue to the public, begs leave most respectfully to tender to the Catholic clergy and laity of America his thanks for their kind and flattering patronage; and he begs leave to assure all his kind patrons, and the Catholic community generally, not only of a continuance, on his part, to the strictest attention to the orders of his customers, but he also engages, owing to increased facilities, to afford henceforward to the ARCHBISHOPS, BISHOPS, PRIESTS, RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES, TEACHERS, and SUPERINTENDENTS OF EDUCATIONAL ESTABLISHMENTS, infinitely better opportunities of supplying themselves with every thing in the way of Church Vestments, Altar Furniture and Ornaments, and Theological, School, and Devotional Books, than has ever hitherto been offered them in America. With this assurance, he respectfully solicits not only a continuance, but an increase of the patronage of the Catholic community.

WHAT THE CATHOLIC PRESS SAY OF IT.

It compares favorably with any prayer book published in America.—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

This manual reflects great credit on both the compiler and publisher. It contains over 800 pages of the best selected matter ever put into a prayer book, while the paper, printing and binding are in character with the contents.—N. Y. Tablet.

This is a prayer book of the largest class, but the cheapest in price, just issued. We observe that those litanies, which have been noticed by the most learned of our theologians, have been entirely omitted. This feature will certainly commend it, and we speak for it a liberal share of patronage.—Baltimore Catholic Mirror.

JUST PUBLISHED,

The Paradise of the Christian Soul,

Delightful for its choicest pleasures of piety of every kind.

BY

JAMES MERLO HORSTIUS,

OF THE CHURCH OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, IN PASCULO PASTORIS, AT COLOGNE.

A new and complete Translation, by lawful authority.

THE PARADISE TO THE CHRISTIAN SOUL, to which access hitherto was only had in the Latin language, is the most complete manual of Catholic devotion, meditation and instruction, ever published. It contains nearly 1100 pages of closely but beautifully printed matter, remarkable for its sweet and fervid piety, and its choice and useful instruction. It is beyond all other books a FAMILY PRAYER BOOK, and a copy of it should be in every Catholic family.

WHAT THE CATHOLIC CLERGY GENERALLY SAY OF THE PARADISE OF THE SOUL:

“It is the greatest work of Prayer, Meditation and Instruction, ever offered to the Catholic public.”

WHAT THE CATHOLIC PRESS SAY OF IT:

It contains the most soul-elevating prayers we have ever read.—Catholic Herald.

The principal feature of this book is that it combines the best characteristics of a prayer and meditation book. We have often seen whole libraries which did not contain so much truth and beauty.—N. Y. Tablet.

HISTORY OF THE PONTIFICATE AND CAPTIVITY

OF

POPE PIUS VI:

TOGETHER WITH A GLANCE AT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH BY MISS H*TH,

A Graduate of St. Joseph's, near Emmitsburg, Maryland.

1 Vol. 18mo Cloth, 240 pp. 50 cts.

A more intensely interesting narrative has rarely, if ever, been written. The heroic devotion and constancy of the Pope, the insanely rabid conduct of his persecutors, his meekness under every contumely, their vexation at the calm resignation with which he bore every affront, together with the many important events which then agitated the Christian world, invest this volume with an interest which rarely attaches to any book

The Young Communicants. By the author of "GERALDINE." 1 Vol. 18mo, Cloth, 25 cts.

It is unnecessary to point out the merits of a book written by the Author of "Geraldine." It may not, however, be out of place to say that FATHER JOSLIN especially recommends it as a most instructive and interesting book, in a note in that excellent prayer book, the STAR OF BETHLEHEM.

THE SUFFERINGS OF JESUS,

BY CATHERINE EMMERICH.

Translated by a Sister of Mercy.

1 Vol. 18mo, Cloth, with a fine Steel Engraving of the "Agony in the Garden," 37½ cts.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

This is a very attractive little volume relating to the passion and death of our Saviour. The authoress is represented as having been favored with visions during the holy season of Lent, in which she spiritually witnessed the progress of the "Sufferings of Jesus." What was thus revealed to her she describes in a graceful style, which this condensed translation presents unimpaired to edify the reader.—N. Y. Truth Teller.

Persons of contemplating minds can have no better guide to the thrilling scenes of Calvary than the Sufferings.—N. Y. Tablet.

Here is an excellent book, and is a valuable addition to our books of devotion. It is got out in good style, and is embellished with a beautiful engraving of our blessed Lord in his agony.—Boston Pilot.

THE BEST MEDITATION BOOK.

JUST PUBLISHED,

CRASSET'S MEDITATIONS

FOR EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR.

TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH BY MRS. ANNA H. DORSEY,

With an Introduction by REV. C. WALWORTH.

1 Vol. Large 12mo, Cloth, 620 pp. Price $1 50.

The Rev. Father Walworth, in his Introduction, says:

"Of Meditation Books we know of none which seem to fulfil their purpose, except this work of FATHER CRASSET. We repeat once more for those who aspire, not simply to read Meditations, but to practice Mental Prayer, this work of FATHER CRASSET is the Book of Books."

Notices of the Press on Crasset's Meditations.

These Meditations, perhaps the most popular and celebrated of any in Europe, rich in matter and well arranged in form, should be hailed with pleasure by English-speaking Catholics. It is no common book of meditations, and should receive no common welcome. Mrs. Dorsey is esteemed as a translator, and has no doubt done her duty well. Mr. O'Shea has had the book well printed and on good paper.—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

The best of meditation books.—N. Y. Tablet.

Many of the meditation books that are to be found in the book shops are mere books of spiritual reading, all the points in them being elaborated to such an extent as to leave nothing to the mind of the meditator to work out. Others err in the opposite direction and are mere bald collections of heads of topics for meditation. Father Crasset's work is free from both of these objections. It is eminently suggestive and practical. For people living in the world it is the best manual of meditation that we know of.

Boston Pilot.

Crasset's meditations, translated by Mrs. Anna H. Dorsey, is an almost necessary book, for no one book of Meditations can supply the varied demand of those who cultivate mental prayer. We have now two solid, excellent works—Challoner's and Crasset's. In spite of our familiarity with the former and our reverence for its sterling worth, we are almost forced to admit that for ordinary meditation Crasset is the book of books. It will bear comparison with the highest standards of piety. We wish it the widest circulation, for it will prove a spiritual treasure wherever its use obtains.

Catholic Mirror.

LOVE OF GOD.

BY ST. FRANCIS DE SALES.

A NEW TRANSLATION.

1 Vol. large 12mo, over 600 pp., cl. price $1.25.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

We have before us a new translation of that sublime and beautiful treatise on the Love of God by St. Francis de Sales. We have taken some pains to examine into the excellencies which should characterize a new translation of such a work, and the ease and beauty of diction, together with the idiomatic correctness of expression throughout, are such as to enable us to give a most favorable notice of the rendering of this beautiful treatise.—Philadelphia Catholic Herald.

To those who have read the "Devout Life" it will be only necessary to say of the style of this treatise, that its beauties are those with which they are already familiar; but there is a depth of thought and of feeling here beyond what we find in any other writings of St. Francis. The translation is very creditable. We hope this work will meet with the circulation which it well merits and of which the present excellent edition seems to promise assurance.—Baltimore Catholic Mirror.

This handsome volume is a valuable addition to the ascetic literature of the English language. It is a mine of rich thought concerning that virtue which was the distinguishing characteristic of its author. It appears to have been carefully translated, and to give the name of its publisher is equivalent to saying that it is a creditable specimen of book-making.—Boston Pilot.

Of the work itself it would be superfluous to speak—a work which is remarkable alike for its deep philosophy and theology, and its sweet unaffected piety. We are glad to see the work placed within the reach of the English reader, and we hope it will take the place of the light, superficial, sentimental devotional works which have become so fashionable in late years. Its constant study and meditation will render our piety solid and robust as well as tender. St. Francis was in some sort the apostle of Calvinists, and his are the best works extant for Catholics who live in a Calvinistic country like ours.—Brownson's Review.

OR SCENES FROM THE Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

ARRANGED FOR THE DEVOTIONS OF THE MONTH OF MAY,
WITH PRACTICES, PRAYERS AND EXAMPLES.

1 VOL. 32MO, CLOTH, 25 CTS.

SOME OF THE NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

This is a precious little jewel case, containing a number of the most precious pearls of the crown of the Immaculate Virgin Mother. They are really brilliant, quite free from common-place, and wrought in sparkling style, so that they are beyond all praise. We warmly commend this beautiful book to every household. It cannot be read without having our love for our Blessed Lady increased.—Philadelphia Catholic Herald.

THE STAR OF THE NORTH.

Life of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Maginn.

BY THOMAS D'ARCY MCGEE, ESQ.

1 VOL. 12MO, CLOTH, 75 CTS.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Life of this great champion of the Irish church, so full of apostolic zeal, moral courage and iron fortitude, cannot fail to attract the Catholic reader.—*Catholic Mirror.*The history of the Right Rev. Bishop Maginn is the history of one of the most interesting epochs of Irish history—the close of a religious struggle for the freedom of religious worship, and the beginning of a yet unfinished struggle for national independence * * *. We commend this book as a valuable addition to Irish literature in America, which Mr. McGee has done so much to foster, and to establish.—*Catholic Herald.*We have not often read so interesting a work as this memoir is.—N. Y. Truth Teller.

FATHER HEWIT'S HIGHLY INTERESTING AND EDIFYING WORKS.

I.

LIFE OF GUENDALINE,

PRINCESS BORGHESE.

*Translated from the German, with an introduction by Rev. A. F. Hewit.*We are delighted to see this admirable little Life of so exemplary a Catholic of our own times. The subject is one of interest, and the style of the translator is particularly agreeable.—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

We have often to commend books with words of praise, since no other would be exactly suitable, although they scarcely merit what the words convey. The present volume is an exception. It is in reality equally interesting and edifying, and forms a most promising commencement of the New Catholic Library commenced by Mr. O'Shea. The Life of Guendaline Talbot reads like a story of romance, yet it is all true.

 LIFE OF THE EGYPTIAN ALOYSIUS;

OR,

The Little Angel of the Copts.

BY REV. FATHER BRESCIANI.

Translated from the Italian by Rev. A. F. Hewit.

2 VOLS. CLOTH, PER VOL. 37½ CTS.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

This is one of the most delightful little biographies we have ever laid eyes on, and we hope it will find its way into every Separate School, and every other Catholic institution in the Province. A life of a Saint of the ancient Coptic Church is a rarity, especially such an extended one as the present. There are two volumes, the one containing 147 pages, and the other 120. It is published by Mr. P. O'Shea, Broadway, New York.

LIFE OF A MODERN MARTYR.

(BISHOP BORIE.)

BY REV. A. F. HEWIT,

1 VOL. 18MO, CLOTH, GILT BACKS, 37½ CTS.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

This is another of Father Hewit's edifying little books. His name is a sufficient recommendation, yet we cannot avoid calling especial attention to this life of a faithful servant of God, not alone on account of the Christian heroism it illustrates, and the attractive style in which it is presented, but also because the subject of Catholic missions is one which deserves the greatest attention.—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

This beautiful book presents to us a memoir of one of the most truly heroic men of modern times. His burning zeal led him to the remote regions of Tonquin to spread the conquests of Christianity, where he labored, in despite of the most cruel persecution, until his blood was shed under the glorious banner of the cross.—Catholic Herald.

BY THE AUTHOR OF THE "ORPHAN OF MOSCOW."

2 VOLS. 18MO, CLOTH, GILT BACKS, PER VOL. 37½ CTS.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

It is a highly pleasing story for young persons, illustrative of the duty, pleasure and reward of filial devotion, charity, and friendship.—Philadelphia C. Herald.

A truly edifying and interesting story.—N. Y. Truth Teller.

Bickerton, or the Immigrant's Daughter.

A TALE OF THE TIMES.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "HARRY LAYDEN," &c.

1 VOL. 12MO., CLOTH, 50 CTS.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

This is an excellent story and well suited to the times.—Brownson's Review.

Any work like the Immigrant's Daughter, whose tendency is to wither or uproot bigotry and intolerance, ought to be welcomed by every man that loves the country and its institutions, and is animated by the holy principle of Patrick Henry—"Give me liberty or give me death."—N. Y. Citizen.

BICKERTON; OR THE IMMIGRANT'S DAUGHTER. P. O'Shea, Publisher, 739 Broadway. This is an excellent little work of fiction, grounded on the present aspect of political affairs in this country. It is a true narrative of the sufferings of many a poor immigrant, and will be read with interest.—N. Y. Irish American.

This is an interesting story, and will be read with great interest at the present time, as it dips into the Know Nothings in grand style. The book is well gotten up by the publisher.—Boston Pilot.

STANDARD CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS.

The following Prayer Books are printed on good paper, and bound in the most durable and elegant styles:

50	St. Joseph's Manual. Printed with large type, on fine paper, containing 696 pages, 18mo. The merits of this book, among the many which have been published as well in Europe as America, are its peculiar adaptation to the wants of families, or of individu- als, for public as well as private devotion; for those who live re- mote from churches, and cannot be present at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on Sundays and Holidays, as for those who enjoy greater privileges. It may be styled a volume of prayer and reli- gious instruction, since it not only contains devotions, public and private, adapted to the wants of the many, and for all seasons and occasions of the ecclesiastical year, but is also explanatory and in- structive upon many points where information is frequently sought after. The care and attention which have been given to the distri- bution of its varied contents, will be equally appreciated by those who have felt the importance of system and arrangement in this particular..... UNIFORM SERIES OF FATHER FABER'S WORKS.

In 5 VOLS. DEMI 8vo. Cloth, 75—cloth, gilt edges, $1 25 per volume.

The Foot of the Cross; or, The Sorrows of Mary.

The Creator and the Creature; or, The Wonders of Divine Love.

Growth in Holiness; or, The Progress of the Spiritual Life.

The Blessed Sacrament; or, The Works and Ways of God.

All for Jesus; or, The Easy Ways of Divine Love.

Few authors in our day have acquired so distinguished a reputation as Father Faber. His works are every where read, and every where admired. In England, the home of the author, it would seem that the old trite saying, "a prophet is not without praise except in his own country," does not hold good in regard to the illustrious Oratorian and his writings. The September number of the Liverpool Catholic Institute Magazine speaks of his works in the following terms:—"It is no slight proof of the correctness of Father Faber's system to find that beyond all question he creates a sensation and a movement among the people, and among all classes of the people. The Oratorian services are thronged, and the earliest masses and the latest confessionals are alike peopled. The works of Father Faber are found where Catholic works never made their way before. You find the blue cover of 'All for Jesus' on every drawing-room table, at the desk of the missionary priest, in the enclosed convent. We have seen it on the shelf of a confectioner's shop; it is known in the workman's cottage. No Young Men's Society is without it. And it is a very suggestive fact, that in one of our principal ecclesiastical seminaries, whose president is much looked up to as a skilled master in spiritual things, there were no fewer than two hundred copies of this work to be found."

Recently published, in 1 vol. square 16mo.—cloth, 38 cents;—cloth, gilt, 62½ cents.

With the Approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore.

THE Publishers beg to call attention to their STANDARD PRAYER BOOKS, as combining a degree of unsurpassed ELEGANCE, ACCURACY, and CHEAPNESS, both as regards Paper, Printing, Illustrations, and Binding. They may be had in every variety of plain and elegant binding, at prices varying from 12½ cents to $10 per copy.

THE VISITATION MANUAL, a collection of Prayers and Instructions, compiled according to the Spiritual Directory and Spirit of Saint Francis de Sales, Founder of the Religious Order of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary,—containing copious Extracts from the Writings of ST. FRANCIS DE SALES, referring to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Spiritual Direction, Holy Communion, the Sanctification of the Week, and other subjects, comprising much that has never before appeared in English. A beautiful 18mo vol. printed from large type, on fine paper, embellished with Fine Engravings.

In this revised edition the form for Baptizing Adults is inserted conformably to the desire of the Holy See, acquiesced in by our Prelates, that it should be used here, as throughout the Church generally, instead of the simple form of Baptizing Children; which has hitherto been used for adults likewise. An interesting Note is inserted, by authority, correcting a mistake which occurred in an official communication regarding the publication of the bans in mixed marriages. This new edition will be required by all the clergy.

FROM THE SECOND REVISED EDITION.

ROME—Its Ruler, and its Institutions.

By JOHN FRANCIS MAGUIRE, M. P.

At the earnest request of several of the clergy and laity, we have concluded to publish this most important work. To the Catholic it is invaluable, and it is just the book for those outside the Church. All will be satisfied with what the Church has done and is doing for the spiritual as well as temporal welfare of man.

It is not necessary to say anything further, when the highest authority in the Church has spoken. We append the following :—

Mr. Maguire has been honored with a letter from his Holiness, of which the following is a translation.

“ Well-beloved Son ; Health and Apostolical Benediction—We have lately received your most dutiful letter, dated the 17th day of November last, in which you have been pleased to present to Us a work composed by you in the English language, and published this year in London, with the title, ‘ Rome, its Ruler, and its Institutions.’ Of this work we have been unable to enjoy the perusal, owing to our extremely imperfect acquaintance with the language in which it is written. Yet, from the statement of persons of the highest character for competency and trustworthiness, who have perused the same work, We learn with peculiar satisfaction that it contains many evidences of your singular devotedness, attachment, and reverence to Us, and towards this Holy See ; a circumstance which could not fail to be most gratifying to Our feelings. Therefore, while bestowing Our heartfelt recommendation on this noble expression of your sentiments to Us, We return you thanks for the gift ; and, as a testimony of Our fatherly love towards you, We impart to you affectionately from Our heart the Apostolic Benediction.

Given at Rome, at St. Peter’s, the 14th day of December, 1857. in the twelfth year of Our Pontificate.”

PIUS IX.

“ MY DEAR SIR :—

LONDON, August 28, 1857.

According to your desire, I have delayed acknowledging the receipt of your ‘ Rome ’ till I had read it through. This I have now done, taking it up at every leisure moment with renewed pleasure, till I had finished it. Having myself had to go over a great part of the ground, whether personally or by the study of documents, I think I am qualified to form a just judgment of the work. It is most truthful, accurate, and unexaggerated picture of the Holy Father, of his great works, and of his most noble and amiable character, drawn with freshness, elegance and vigor—with admiration, and even, if you please, enthusiasm ; but not greater than is shared by every one who has drawn near the person of the Holy Father. There is not a trait in your portrait which I do not fully recognize ; not an action or a speech which I could not easily imagine to have been performed or spoken in my presence—so like are they to what I have myself seen and heard. In estimating what has been done during the late years of quiet rule for the prosperity of the Pontifical States. I think you have prudently kept rather below than gone above what might have been stated. The result will be more manifest in time—to the confusion, one may hope, of those who, dishonestly or ignorantly misrepresented every measure of the Sovereign Pontiff. I feel sure that your work is calculated to do much good wherever it is read ; and I cannot help hoping that the very novelty of daring to speak the bold truth, the abundance of information which is communicated, and the eloquence of the style, will obtain for your book all the popularity which it deserves. I need not say that by this work you have nailed your colors to the mast, and become the Pope’s champion, in the House as well as out of it ; and I am sure you will not allow him to be vilified by any one, however lofty.

I am ever, my dear sir,

Your affectionate servant in Christ.

John Francis Maguire, Esq., M. P.”

WORKS AND LIFE OF GERALD GRIFFIN.

NEW EDITION of the LIFE AND WORKS OF GERALD GRIFFIN, revised and corrected by his Brother. Illustrated with splendid Steel Engravings, and printed on the finest paper. To be completed in twenty-five to thirty weekly parts, at 25 Cents each. Comprising the following Tales :—

- VOL. 1.—THE COLLEGIANS. A Tale of Garryowen.
 “ 2.—CARD DRAWING. A Tale of Clare.
 “ THE HALF SIR. A Tale of Munster.
 “ SUIL DHUV. A Tale of Tipperary.
 “ 3.—HOLLAND TIDE, THE AYLMEERS OF BALLY-AYLMER, THE HAND AND WORD, AND BARBER OF BANTRY.
 “ 4.—THE RIVALS. A Tale of Wicklow; and TRACY'S AMBITION.
 “ 5.—TALES OF THE JURY ROOM. Containing : SIGISMUND, THE STORY-TELLER AT FAULT, THE KNIGHT WITHOUT REPROACH, &c., &c.
 “ 6.—THE DUKE OF MONMOUTH. A Tale of the English Insurrection.
 “ 7.—TALES OF THE FIVE SENSES, and NIGHT AT SEA.
 “ 8.—THE POETICAL WORKS AND TRAGEDY OF GYSIPPUS.
 “ 9.—INVASION. A Tale of the Conquest.
 “ 10.—LIFE OF GERALD GRIFFIN. By his Brother.

In presenting to the American public, a first edition of the Works of Gerald Griffin, the Publishers may remark that it will be found to be the only complete one. Neither in the London nor Dublin editions, could the Publishers include the historical novel of “The Invasion,” and the celebrated tragedy of “Gysippus.” As we are not subject to any restriction arising from the British copyright, we have included the former with the prose, and the latter with the poetical works of the Author.

We are also indebted to near relatives of Mr. Griffin, residing in this country, for an original contribution to this edition; which will be found gratefully acknowledged in the proper place.

As the life of the Author forms the subject of one entire volume, we need say little here, of the uncommon interest his name continues to excite. Unlike the majority of writers of fiction, his reputation has widely expanded since his death. In 1840, when he was laid in his grave, at the early age of seven and thirty, not one person knew the loss a pure literature had sustained, for fifty who now join veneration for his virtues, to admiration for his various and delightful talents. The goodness of his heart, the purity of his life, the combined humor and pathos of his writings, all promise longevity of reputation to Gerald Griffin.

"He had kept

The whiteness of his soul, and so men o'er him wept."

He united all the simplicity and cordiality of Oliver Goldsmith to much of the fiery energy and manly zeal of Robert Burns. His life does not disappoint the reader, who turns from the works to their author; it is, indeed, the most delightful and harmonious of all his works. From his childish sports and stories by the Shannon until his solemn and enviable death beside "the pleasant waters" of the Lee, a golden thread of rectitude runs through all his actions. A literary adventurer in London at nineteen, with a Spanish tragedy for his sole capital, famous at thirty, a religious five years later, a tenant of the Christian Brothers' Cemetery at thirty-seven—the main story of his life is soon told. Over its details, we are confident, many a reader will fondly linger, and often return to contemplate so strange and so beautiful a picture. Out of his secret heart they will find sentiments issuing not unworthy of St. Frances de Sales, while from his brain have sprung creations of character which might have been proudly fathered by Walter Scott.

Canvassers wanted in every part of the United States and Canadas to sell this work.

The Works are bound in the following styles of Binding:—

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF GERALD GRIFFIN.—We welcome this new and complete edition of the works of Gerald Griffin, now in the course of publication by the Messrs. Sadlier & Co. We read The Collegians, when it was first published, with a pleasure we have never forgotten, and which we have found increased at every repeated perusal. Ireland has produced many geniuses, but rarely one, upon the whole, superior to Gerald Griffin. When we have his life, and the publication of the edition is completed, we shall endeavor to render our tribute of gratitude to the memory of the gifted author.—[Brownson's Review.]

It is not surprising that comparatively little is known in this country, save among the more intelligent American citizens from the "Emerald Isle," of Gerald Griffin, when we consider that he was born in the beginning of the present century, and closed his brief, but really bright and brilliant, career of authorship at the early age of 37. He however achieved a reputation as a writer of no ordinary power, and as has been remarked, united all the simplicity and cordiality of Oliver Goldsmith, to much of the fiery energy and manly zeal of Robert Burns. We have now before us four volumes, the commencement of a complete edition of his works, embracing the "Collegians," and the first series of his "Munster Tales." The nationality of these tales, and the genius of the author in depicting the mingled levity and pathos of Irish character, have rendered them exceedingly popular. The present edition, the first published in America. The style in which the series is produced, is highly creditable to the enterprise of the American publishers, and we are free to say, that the volumes are worthy of being placed in our libraries, public or private, alongside of Irving, Cooper, or Scott.—Hunt's Merchants' Magazine.

Whoever wishes to read one of the most passionate and pathetic novels in English literature will take with him, during the summer vacation, The Collegians, by Gerald Griffin. He was a young Irishman, who died several years since, after writing a series of works—novels and poetry, which gave him little reputation during his life, but since his death have given him fame, as, in our judgment, the best Irish novelist. The picture of Irish character and manners a half century since, in The Collegians, is masterly, and the power with which the fond, impetuous, passionate, thoroughly Celtic nature of Hardress Cregan is drawn, evinces rare genius. Griffin died young, a disappointed man. But this is one story, if nothing else of his, will surely live among the very best novels of the time. It is full of incident, and an absorbing interest allures the reader to the end, and leaves him with a melted heart and moistened eye. It is a very convenient and attractive edition. It will contain all his novels, dramas, and lyrics. The latter have a thoroughly Irish flavor, and will, we sincerely hope, be the means of making the talented young Irishman widely known, and, consequently, admired in this country.—Putnam's Monthly.

The works of the author in question are written in an easy, flowing style, and his sketches of character exhibit a rare knowledge of human nature—Irish human nature especially—while the descriptive portions carry with them a truthfulness and fidelity which are peculiarly charming. Many of his narratives are founded upon real incidents in Irish history which are ingeniously worked up, and rendered thrillingly exciting and absorbingly interesting. They are interspersed with scenes of the deepest pathos, and the most genuine humor—at one moment we are convulsed with laughter, at the next affected to tears—while an atmosphere of sound morality, containing many touches of true philosophy and deep reasoning, surrounds the whole, showing that the author well knew the way to the human heart. While every one who possesses true literary taste will be charmed with Griffin's works, they will be peculiarly fascinating—from the richness of the colloquial parts, the old traditions and sectional landmarks—to readers of Irish birth. We heartily recommend Gerald Griffin's works to the attention of the American public, and predict for them an immense popularity.—Sunday Dispatch.

No perfect edition of this gifted author's works has we believe, appeared up to the present time. The Messrs. Sadlier & Co. are about to supply that want, by the publication not only of the whole series of his known tales, but of several others found amongst his papers, with which the public are not familiar. They have commenced with The Collegians, that most exquisitely conceived and touching story, which at once established Griffin's fame as a writer of fiction, and raised him in the estimation of his countrymen above all who had preceded him in the delineation of Irish life and manners. To the American public, who are not very generally acquainted with the productions of such delightful writers as Griffin, Banim, Carlton, Crofton Croker, and other industrious explorers among the rich mines of Irish tradition.—New York Herald.

We thank the publishers for re-giving to the world the works of unquestionably the most gifted genius that modern Irish literature has produced. Neither Carlton nor Lever, nor Lover, nor the Bannims can rank as the equals of Gerald Griffin, and yet he is almost unknown in this country. He never had the English approbatur, because a good deal of treason was discoverable in some of his writings. One work, however, of his the Collegians, is known and a favorite in this country; but the keen observation of the "Half Sir," the drollery of the "Barber of Bantry," the romantic interest of the "Aylmers of Balley Aylmer," and the "Rivals," the poetical works and the shorter prose tales of this brilliant writer, so early taken away by death, are completely novel pleasures for American readers to enjoy.

Gerald Griffin has been said to "unite the geniality and simplicity of Goldsmith with the fiery, independent manliness of Robert Burns." He achieved quite a brilliant fame before his thirtieth birthday; and then, he took off the laurel crown, assumed the cross, and, five years later, was laid down to his repose among the Christian Brothers, whose institution he had joined.—St. Louis Leader.

The high praise which has been bestowed upon the preceding numbers which have made their appearance in this country, and upon the whole aggregate of Griffin's work by the critics of his native land, is fully warranted by the real merit and faithful finished style of the books now under consideration. They are full to repletion of human nature, history, anecdote and the customs of the time and country to which they relate. The steel illustrations are excellent. The stories are told with wild and rare vigor and piquancy, and the sonnets, interspersed here and there, by way of introduction to the narrative, are some of them, among the best in the English language. Buy, read and see if we do not speak correctly, for we speak as a friend to readers.—Daily News.

History of Christianity in China, Tartary, and THIBET, from the Apostleship of St. Thomas to the Establishment of the Mantchoo-Tartar Dynasty in China.

2 Volumes, 12mo. Cloth extra, $2 00.
 " " Half morocco, 2 50.

To Abbé Huc we are indebted for most of our accurate knowledge of modern China. He traversed from one end of that great empire to the other; he was honored with special privileges and rank; he was admitted in Peking. He saw a great deal of the interior as well as the ceremonial life of the Chinese, and his works of travels are as amusing as romances.

The name of the work before us fully indicates what it is—a well-digested, authentic, and explicit history of the difficulties which attended the introduction of the Christian Faith into China and its vicinity, and of the successes which followed. The introduction satirically contrasts our modern missions with those so often leading to martyrdom, which the Church of Rome sent from her bosom, far and wide over the world. Then commences the history, showing how, from the first, with the rest of the Magi, the Chinese ruler felt an interest in the Advent of the expected Messiah, and how rapidly, when the great sacrifice was made, the Christian Faith spread to the remotest parts of Asia—promulgated, it is believed, by St. Thomas, the Apostle, in person. The whole course of tradition is run through, and then the records of fact are given, up to the establishment of the Mantchoo-Tartar dynasty in China, on the downfall of the dynasty of Ming, in the middle of the seventeenth century:—to drive out the Mantchoo-Tartar rulers is the object of the rebellion now raging in China. The narrative, which is admirably translated, is the very romance of history, with all the accuracy of fact, derived as it is from the records of the mission in China.

At any time, such a book as this would be a valuable addition to our store of knowledge. At the present crisis, when more than one of the "outside barbarian" nations are assailing China, it is important as well as interesting.—Philadelphia Press.

M. Huc, has enjoyed opportunities of becoming familiar with the character of the people of the countries named, and also of their institutions, habits, manners, and customs, such as have seldom been bestowed on travelers through the Celestial Empire. These volumes are the result of his missionary experience in the very heart of an empire comparatively unknown, yet comprising a population of nearly one-third of the human family. Aside from its peculiar claims upon the Catholic Church, as exhibiting a self-devotion and untiring zeal in the promulgation of its religious faith, this work is of great value to the statesman, the merchant, and the philanthropist, as containing a vivid portrayal of the character of a country and people, now more than ever engaging the especial attention of the civilized world.—Hunt's Merchant's Magazine.

Perhaps there is no person so well qualified to write the history of Christianity in the countries above mentioned as the Abbé Hue, it is but a few years since that we gave the public a very entertaining and instructive account of his journey through Asia and China, which was related with a certain quaintness that invested it with a peculiar charm. Though here and there he stated as facts what to the reader might appear gross exaggerations, yet no one doubted the general truthfulness of his narrative. In the present volumes he gives a full account of the labors of the missionaries of the Church of Rome in the East, from the Apostleship of St. Thomas to the establishment of the Mantchoo-Tartar dynasty in China. These volumes contain over seven-hundred pages; they bear evidence of having been carefully prepared, and are a valuable contribution to the missionary history of the Church of which the author is a member.—N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.

The scholars and philosopher, too, who have given their attention of late years to the questions connected with China, have gradually emancipated themselves from the traditional notions, in pursuance of which it was habitually regarded as a country entirely without relations even with those eastern races by which it is surrounded.

Last of all, Father Hue has taken up carefully all the links of the chain which connect both the history and the usages of Tartary and Thibet with those of their Chinese masters; with both which subjects Father Hue may be safely acknowledged to possess an acquaintance, such as has not fallen to the lot of any European since the days of Father Ricci or Adam Schall.

"Christianity in China" may fairly be regarded as substantially a new work; and even when it goes over ground already trodden, its information will be found much more precise, more orderly, and more complete, than the necessarily brief and condensed notices which formed the great charm of the work on The Chinese Empire.—Dublin Review.

"The Abbé Hue is well known to the reading public as the author with a companion of Travels in Tartary and Thibet, and by a work on the Chinese Empire. His previous works have been read with avidity as well for the information they give of countries, tribes, institutions, manners and customs little known to the Western world, as for their intrinsic merits and personal adventures; and whatever else may be said of the author, it is certain he has the art of writing very agreeable and interesting books, and nothe least interesting and agreeable as well as instructive of his productions is the work now before us. It contains a history of the establishment and various fortunes of Christianity in India, Tartary, Thibet, and China, from the times of the Apostles down to the present day,—a history replete with interest and instruction.

We hope to be able to return to this work, and give our readers an analysis of its valuable contents, with some reflections on the progress of Christianity in the East."—Brownson's Quarterly Review.

"The name of the Abbé Hue has become a household word with us. From the elders of the family down to the youngest 'literate' member of it, his genial writings have been read and re-read with delight. Among the small people, according to their respective ages, he takes rank with the authors of Robinson Crusoe, and Puss in Boots; and, in truth, it is no small gift to be able to rivet the attention of children on a genuine traveller's chronicle, however full of incidents. He has found the way to their sympathies and confidence. They would rejoice at a visit from the good father, receive him as an old friend, and plague him with all sorts of questions about Samdad-chiamba, whose queer name trips over their tongues as easily as Jack or Lizzie. Our own feelings towards the intrepid missionary apostolic are very much the same, only tempered by high respect and admiration for his intellectual and personal qualities. We hail with the greatest pleasure every fresh contribution to our modern literature, striking as it is in quantity rather than quality, from the pen of a man who has really something to say, and who combines French vivacity and acuteness with English solidity. We know not how M. l'Abbé would accept this description, but we mean it as the highest compliment we can pay him.

Leaving the field of personal narrative, he now presents us with a history of Christianity in China, Tartary, and Thibet. No living man is more competent to undertake so important a task; with which short but emphatic preface we shall at once address ourselves to the examination of the two volumes containing the translation of the result of his labours and research."—The Rambler.

No portion of the history of the Church is more interesting or instructive, than that which relates to the labors of her missionaries. The trials and sufferings of these holy men, the many privations and hardships which they have undergone in the cause of truth, excite our admiration, stimulate our zeal, and demand of us renewed exertions in giving aid to the cause in which they are engaged. It is, therefore, with pleasure that we behold the publication of the present work, detailing the exertions which the Church has made, even from the earliest period, to spread the light of Christianity among the Eastern nations. Few men are better qualified for this task than the Abbé Hue. His long experience in the Eastern mission, his familiarity with the language, the manners and customs of the nations of India and China, have given him facilities that few possess, and ably has he employed them.

The learned author commences the work by showing that anterior to the birth of our Divine Saviour, the oriental nations as well as those of the west, were in expectation of the coming of some extraordinary personage. Confucius had told his countrymen that a saviour would be born in the west. The Indian poet on the banks of the Ganges had sung of the Vishnu Yesu, who should come and "cause truth and justice to reign on earth;" who should restore the four castes, and after his reign all Brahmins should be holy men.—The Metropolitan.

The Life of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; or, JESUS REVEALED TO YOUTH. By the ABBE F. LAGRANGE. Translated from the French by MRS. J. SADLIER; with the approbation of the Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York. Illustrated with 10 plates. 16mo.

Cloth extra, 50 cents; Cloth gilt, 75 cents.

"Suffer little children to come unto me!" said our Lord himself, in the fullness of his love: he wishes, then to draw their innocent hearts to himself, and it is for us to make him known to them, that knowing, they may love him; and loving, they will be sure to serve him all their life long. Let them behold him as he was when, clothed with our frail humanity, he walked amongst men, scattering blessings as he went. This little volume is, I think, well calculated to make Jesus known to the younglings of his flock. It is written in a simple, conversational style, and contains a summary of every thing relating to our divine Saviour that children ought to know. Even those who are already playing their allotted parts as men and women, on the world's stage, may derive both pleasure and profit from perusing this simple work of piety. It will happily lead them back for a time to the green pastures and the silvery waters of life's young spring, far away from the dusty highway and the crowded mart, and all the ceaseless whirl of more recent years. They will be children in heart, at least for the time; and any thing that assimilates us to children must ever be advantageous, since Christ himself tells us that, unless we become as one of these little ones, we shall have no place in his eternal kingdom.

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE POPULAR LIBRARY.

The Volumes of the Library published are the most interesting as well as the most useful Books yet issued from the American Press, and supply a want long felt by Catholic Parents. Books which they can safely place in the hands of their children.

(EIGHTH THOUSAND JUST PUBLISHED.)

The Popular Library
OF HISTORY, BIOGRAPHY, FICTION, and MISCELLANEOUS LITERATURE. A Series of Works by some of the most eminent writers of the day ; Edited by MESSRS. CAPES, NORTHCOTE, and THOMPSON.

The "POPULAR LIBRARY" is intended to supply a desideratum which has long been felt, by providing at a cheap rate a series of instructive and entertaining publications, suited for general use, written expressly for the purpose, and adapted in all respects to the circumstances of the present day. It is intended that the style of the work shall be such as to engage the attention of young and old, and of all classes of readers, while the subjects will be so varied as to render the series equally acceptable for Home use, Educational purposes, or railway reading.

The following are some of the subjects which it is proposed to include in the "Popular Library," though the volumes will not necessarily be issued in the order here given. A large portion of the Series will also be devoted to works of Fiction and Entertaining Literature generally, which will be interspersed with the more solid publications here named.

Fabiola; or the Church of the Catacombs.

By his Eminence CARDINAL WISEMAN.

Price.—Cloth, extra. 12mo., 400 pages, $ 75
Gilt edges, - - - 1 12

The Press of Europe and America is unanimous in praise of this work. We give a few extracts below:—

"Eminently popular and attractive in its character, 'Fabiola' is in many respects one of the most remarkable works in the whole range of Modern Fiction. The reader will recognise at once those characteristics which have ever sufficed to identify one illustrious pen."—Dublin Review.

"We rejoice in the publication of 'Fabiola,' as we conceive it the commencement of a new era in Catholic literature."—Telegraph.

"Worthy to stand among the highest in this kind of literature."—C. Standard.

"Were we to speak of 'Fabiola' in the strong terms our feelings would prompt, we should be deemed extravagant by those who have not read it. It is a most charming book, a truly popular work, and alike pleasing to the scholars and general reader."—Brownson's Review.

"A story of the early days of Christianity, by Cardinal Wiseman, is a sufficient notice to give of this volume, lately published in London, and re-published by the Sadlier's in a very neat and cheap volume."—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

"As a series of beautifully wrought and instructive tableaux of Christian virtue and Christian heroism in the early ages, it has no equal in the English language."—American Celt.

"We think that all who read 'Fabiola' will consider it entirely successful. . . . We must do the Messrs. Sadlier the justice to say, that the book is beautifully printed and illustrated, and that it is one of the cheapest books we have seen."—Boston Pilot.

"We would not deprive our readers of the pleasure that is in store for them in the perusal of 'Fabiola;' we will therefore refrain from any further extracts from this truly fascinating work. We know, in fact, no book which has, of late years, issued from the press, so worthy of the attention of the Catholic reader as 'Fabiola.' It is a most charming Catholic story, most exquisitely told."—True Witness (Montreal.)

"It is a beautiful production—the subject is as interesting, as is the ability of the author to treat of it unquestioned—and the tale itself one of the finest specimens of exquisite tenderness, lofty piety, great erudition, and vast and extended knowledge of the men and manners of antiquity, we have ever read."—Montreal Transcript.

"As a faithful picture of domestic life in the olden time of Roman splendor and prosperity, it far exceeds the Last days of Pompeii; and the scenes in the arena, where the blood of so many martyrs fertilized the soil wherein the seed of the Christian faith was fully planted, are highly dramatic, and worthy of any author we have ever read."—New York Citizen.

 This volume is in process of translation into the French, German, Italian, Flemish and Dutch language.

M. Dupin, President of the French Academy, remarked, when awarding her the prize for virtue:—

“But there remains a difficulty, which has doubtless suggested itself to the mind of each amongst you, how is it possible for Jeanne alone to provide the expenses of so many poor? What shall I reply to you? God is Almighty! Jeanne is indefatigable, Jeanne is eloquent, Jeanne has prayers, Jeanne has tears, Jeanne has strength to work, Jeanne has her basket, which she carries untiringly upon her arm, and which she always takes home filled. Saintly woman, the Academy deposits in this basket the utmost placed at its disposal, decreeing you a prize of 3,000 francs.”

“This is another of the Popular Library that the Sadliers are doing such good service by re-publishing in this country. At the earnest advice of a gifted friend, whose opinion has every weight with us, we publish entire the preface to this volume by Aubrey de Vere. It is one of the most interesting and valuable essays that has been given to the world for a long time. For the remaining contents of the book we must refer our readers to its own pages.”—*N. Y. The Witch of Milton Hill.

A Tale, by the Author of “Mount St. Lawrence,” “Mary, Star of the Sea.”

Price.—Cloth, extra. 12mo. 50 cents.
Gilt edges, - - - 75 “

“The Tales of this Author are distinguished by a skill in the delineation of character, and life-like pictures of domestic society. The present, though bearing clear marks of the same hand, is more a story of movement and incident. It is in no sense a ‘religious’ novel and still less a controversial one. But the progress of the story is throughout made to depend upon the practical adoption or reception of certain principles of right and wrong, so that the ‘poetical justice’ awarded to every body in the end is not a mere chance consequence of circumstances, but the natural result of their character and conduct. This it is which gives their chief value to books of fiction as a means for influencing the reader’s mind, and this it is which will make ‘The Witch’ a volume fit for general circulation to an extent which can be asked for few novels. The story is worked out with considerable ingenuity and a rapid succession of events, increasing in interest as it proceeds. ‘The Witch’ is a very clever story, and will suit the young as well as the old.”—Tablet.

"The record of the Martyrdom of the lovely Father Azevedo and his Companions, who suffered most of them in the bloom of their years, is one of the most delightful pictures of Christian heroism that ever came under our eyes.... Few will read the touching narrative of the Massacre of the Carmes without feeling their hearts melt.... We have seldom seen so much information within so short a compass on the state of religious belief in the Chinese Empire as is given in the introductory chapter to the account of the Chinese Martyrs..... We take leave of this most interesting and edifying work, and we recommend it most heartily to the Catholic reader who loves—and who does not?—to contemplate those pictures of heroism which the Church alone has fed and called forth."—Tablet.

Blakes and Flanagans.

A Tale of the Times, Illustrative of Irish Life in the United States. By Mrs. J. SADLIER, Author of "New Lights, or Life in Galway," "Willy Burke," "Alice Riordan," &c. 12mo., 400 pages.

Price.—Cloth, extra, 75 cents.

Gilt edges, $1 12 "

In a recent visit to Montreal, the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Charbonnell, preaching on the education of children, paid the following high compliment to our Tale—"THE BLAKES AND FLANAGANS"—which turns mainly on that topic. His Lordship remarked:—

"On coming to town I called at a Bookstore to purchase a number of copies to bring with me to Quebec, but found that it was not yet printed in book-form. It is now being published in the AMERICAN CELT, and I would like to see it circulated by the hundred thousand."

"This compliment coming from the Bishop of Toronto, cannot be but highly valued by the gifted writer, Mrs. Sadlier.

"We cannot forbear assuring the Authoress, contemporaneous with announcement, and thus publicly, that her story has been read with the liveliest interest by our readers, and that it has elicited the most earnest expressions of respect for herself from persons distinguished in every walk of life.

"Before parting with our favorite contributor, let us add the following opinion recently expressed to us by a gifted Western clergyman! 'Mrs. Sadlier's story,' he said, 'has done more to bring home to the hearts of parents the importance of Catholic education, than any other, and all other advocacy combined.' This is extreme praise, but we will say, not undeserved."—American Celt.

"The style is excellent, thoroughly natural and unaffected, the narrative flowing, the conversations full of vivacity, and the characters well sustained. We cannot but wish it the widest circulation that a book can have."—St. Louis Leader.

The Life and Times of St. Bernard.

Translated from the French of M. L'ABBE RATISBONNE.
With a Preface by HENRY EDWARD MANNING, D. D., and a Portrait. 1 vol., 12mo., 500 pages.

Price.—Cloth, extra, $1 00.
Gilt edges, 1 50.

"St. Bernard was so eminently the saint of his age, that it would be impossible to write his life without surrounding it with an extensive history of the period in which he lived, and over which he may be truly said, to have ruled. The Abbé Ratisbonne has, with this view, very ably and judiciously interwoven with the personal narrative and description of the saint, the chief contemporaneous events and characters of the time.

"There seems to have been in this one mind an inexhaustible abundance, variety, and versatility of gifts. Without ever ceasing to be the holy and mortified religious, St. Bernard appears to be the ruling will of his time. He stands forth as pastor, preacher, mystical writer, controversialist, reformer, pacificator, mediator, arbiter, diplomatist, and statesman. He appears in the schools, at the altar, in the preacher's chair, in councils of the Church, in councils of the State, amid the factions of cities, the negotiations of princes, and the contests of anti-popes. And whence came this wondrous power of dealing with affairs and with men? Not from the training and schooling of this world, but from the instincts, simplicity, and penetration of a mind profoundly immersed in God, and from a will of which the fervour and singleness of aim were supernatural."—Extracts from Preface.

The Life and Victories of the Early Mar-
TYRS. By MRS. HOPE. Written for the Oratorian's
Schools of our Lady's Compassion. 1 vol., 12mo., 400 pages.

Price.—Cloth, extra. $ 75.

Gilt edges, 1 12.

"The interesting Tale of 'Fabiola' has made most readers familiar with the sufferings of the Early Martyrs, and desirous to know more of their history, and of the Victories which they achieved over the world. Every age, every clime, has its martyrs, for it is a distinctive mark of the Catholic Church, that the race of martyrs never dies out. And since her earliest times, a single generation has not passed away without some of her children shedding their blood for the name of Jesus. Other religious bodies may have had a few individuals here and there and at distant intervals, who have died for their opinions. But it is in the Catholic Church alone the spirit of martyrdom has ever been alive. Nor is it difficult to account for this, as the Catholic Church is the only true Church, the devil is ever ready to raise up persecutions against her, and as the Lord ever loves his spouse, the Church, he bestows upon her all graces, and among them the grace of martyrdom, with a more lavish hand than on others."—Extract from Introduction.

History of the War in La Vendée, and the Little Chouannerie. By G. J. HILL, M. A. With Two Maps and Seven Engravings, 12mo.

Cloth, extra, 75 cents; cloth, extra, gilt edges, $1 12.

This is a number of the popular Catholic Library now in course of publication by Messrs. Burns and Lambert, London, and Messrs. Sadlier & Co., in this city, and is one of the most interesting numbers of that valuable series that has as yet appeared. It is full of romantic incident, and is as exciting as any romance ever written. The author has grouped his incidents with much skill, and told his story with much grace and feeling. The public can hardly fail to appreciate it highly; and the intelligent reader will find it full of instruction as well as interest. The war in La Vendée was the war of the peasants, and a war chiefly for the freedom of religion. For the freedom of religion, the freedom of conscience, the freedom to have their own priests, and to worship God according to their own faith, they took up arms, and they did not lay them down till they had secured it. They were the true French patriots in the time of the Republic; the men who preserved fresh and living the France of St. Louis and the Crusaders, historical and traditional France, and it is not too much to say that they saved France in her darkest days, and prevented the continuity of her life from being broken by the madness and excesses of the revolution. They prove how much religion warms and strengthens patriotism, and that it can make undisciplined peasants able to cope successfully with the best drilled and appointed armies. When fighting for their religion, these half-unarmed peasants were invincible, and almost always victorious. When from a Catholic army they became a Royalist army, and acted under the direction of chiefs, who thought only of restoring fallen monarchy, they melted away before their enemies, as wax at the touch of fire, or were scattered as the morning mist before the rising sun.—Brownson's Review.

The period of the war was from '91 to '97, from the first proclamation of "the Civil Constitution of the Clergy" to the pacification, and consequent restoration of public worship under the Consulate. The scene of the war was the most Celtic region in the west of France, on both banks of the great Celtic river, the Loire. All Bretagne, parts of Maine, Anjou and Poitou, were engaged at various periods of the struggle, the largest number in arms being not less than 100,000 in every quarter of this country, while against them were sent in succession the armies of Generals Kleber, Westerman, and Hoche. On the side of the insurgents, the successive commanders were Cathelineau, D'Elbee, Henri de Larochejacquelein, Charette, and Stofflet; St. Malo, Quiberon, Nantes, Laval, Moulins, Fontenay, Thouars, and Angers, were the towns and cities lost and taken on both sides, but the citadel and nursery of the war was La Vendée.—American Celt.

The Missions in Japan and Paraguay.

By CECILIA CADDELL, author of "Tales of the Festivals," "Miser's Daughter," "Lost Jenoveffa," &c., &c.

12mo., cloth, extra, 63 cts.; cloth, extra, gilt edges, 88 cts.

These are two additional numbers of the Catholic Library already referred to, and are well adapted to its purpose. The History of the Missions in Japan and Paraguay, by Miss Caddell, is peculiarly interesting and instructive. It is written with simplicity and taste.—Brownson's Review.

13th VOL. POPULAR LIBRARY, SER.

Callista; A Tale of the Third Century.

By Very Rev. JOHN HENRY NEWMAN, D. D., Rector of the Catholic University, Dublin.

12mo., cloth, extra, 75 cents; cloth, extra gilt, $1 12.

The following extract is from a very long notice of the work in the Dublin Tablet:

"The story is partly interwoven with historical facts, but its author professes, at the outset, that as a whole, it is 'a simple fiction from beginning to end.' However that may be, as an instrument of conveying a real and genuine historical knowledge of the days of which it treats, in their aspect towards Christianity, it will probably remain without a rival in the literary world."

Dr. Newman is peculiarly felicitous in portraying the exceeding difficulty an old Roman Pagan had in understanding the principles and motives which governed the Christian. He could not enter into his way of thinking, could not seize his stand-point, and comprehend how a man well to do in the world, intelligent, cultivated, respectable, in the road to wealth, pleasure, distinction, honors, under Paganism, should forego all his advantages, join himself to a proscribed sect, regarded as almost beneath contempt, professing, as it was assumed, a most debasing and disgusting superstition, without intelligence, common sense, and common decency, and that too when to do so was sure persecution, and almost certain death, as a traitor to Cæsar. It was a sore puzzle to the wise heathen, it is a sore puzzle also, to the proud and self-sufficient non-Catholic even to-day, and will remain so to the end of the world. It is hard even for worldly-minded Christians to comprehend how youth and beauty can forego the world, and wed themselves to an unseen Lover, and live and suffer only for an invisible Love. The solution is found only in giving our hearts to God, and living for heaven alone."—Brownson's Review."

Manual of Modern History.

By MATTHEW BRIDGES, Esq. 600 pages.

12mo., cloth, or half roan, $1 00.

This volume, containing, as it does, a large amount of matter, with complete indexes, tables of chronology, &c., &c., will be found equally useful for popular reading, as a Student's Text-book, or as a manual for schools.

"Mr. Bridges' excellent Popular Modern History."—Cardinal Wiseman's late Lecture on Rome.

"The author dates this history from the irruption and settlement of the barbarous nations on the ruins of the Western Empire, and brings it down, noting events as they transpired in the succeeding ages, to the present. The author has carefully compiled the work from such resources as were within his reach, and he considered were of a reliable character."—Pittsburgh Catholic."

Ancient History.

By MATTHEW BRIDGES, Esq.

Price, 75 cents.

This volume, containing, as it does, a large amount of matter, with complete indexes, tables of chronology, &c., &c., will be found equally useful for popular reading, as a Student's Text-book, or as a manual for schools.

"This is intended by the author as a companion to the popular Modern History. The works, however, are both complete in themselves."—Pittsburgh Catholic.

"These two works are what they profess to be, and give more correct views of history than any other popular volumes we are acquainted with."—Brownson's Review.

"The two works are intended to be a Manual of ancient and modern history. The author wishes to give the reader a comprehensive and distinct idea of human events, to form for himself a judicious system of history, without depending upon others, or being obliged to swear by the opinions of other historians.

"Catholicity and heresy have a great bearing on history. Protestant writers, with precious few exceptions, pervert the facts of history according to their own ideas and notions. If you believe the great bulk of Protestant historians, all the evils of the world for the last ten or twelve centuries have originated with the Catholic Church, and of course, they substantiate their charges by making the statements recorded in other histories flow as a natural emanation from Catholic doctrines. This is their system. Take, for instance, Macaulay. See what he says of the Jesuits. He will tell you that the great doings of the society are all hinged on blind obedience. No allowance is made for the zeal, the spirit of mortification and self-denial, the virtuous habits of men who have long and practically studied the spirit of the Cross, and here become heroes of sanctity. No allowance is made for the goodness of the individual, and the holiness of the institute. Matthew Bridges has seen this clearly. Hence he has followed a much better plan, in fact the only plan, which an historian must follow, and consequently he feels 'thoroughly persuaded of the truthfulness of what he has asserted or described, after years of attention to the subject, and a laborious investigation of those matters which have been fairly controverted or intentionally misrepresented.'"—Boston Pilot.

"The loving warmth which pervades this book—the accuracy of detail with which it is written—and, above all, the subject—one of God's greatest saints and the world's greatest benefactors—must ensure it a wide circulation in America. ALICE SHERWIN.

An Historical Tale of the Days of Sir Thomas More. 12mo.

Cloth, extra.....$0 75

Cloth, extra gilt.....1 12

"ALICE SHERWIN.—This able and interesting historical novel is reprinted from the English, and has been ascribed, we know not whether justly or not, to the distinguished author of Sunday in London—a convert from Anglicanism, who deserves the thanks of every English speaking Catholic for the valuable contributions he has made since his conversion, and is still making, to English Catholic literature. But by whomsoever written, Alice Sherwin is, so far as we know, the most successful attempt at the genuine historical novel by a Catholic author yet made in our language, and gives goodly promise that, in due time, we shall take our proper rank in this department of literature, rendered so popular by the historical romances of Sir Walter Scott. The author has a cultivated mind, a generous and loving spirit, and more than usual knowledge of the play of the passions and the workings of the human heart. He has studied with care and discernment the epoch of Sir Thomas More, or, as we prefer to say, of Henry VIII., and has successfully seized its principal features, its costume and manners, and its general spirit, and paints them in vivid colors, and with a bold and free pencil, though after all with more talent and skill than genius in its highest sense."—Brownson's Review.

New Books Lately Published.

Fundamental Philosophy.

By Rev. JAMES BALMES. Translated from the Spanish by HENRY F. BROWNSON, M. A.; with an introduction by O. A. BROWNSON, LL. D. 2 vols. 8vo., 1,100 pp.

Cloth, extra,	$3 50
Half Morocco,	4 00
Half calf antique,	4 50

"We consider his work the best adapted to meet the wants of the philosophical student at the present time that we are acquainted with. It takes the philosophical world where it now is, and leads it step by step up the highest regions of philosophic thought, and prepares it for the reception of philosophy in its highest, simplest and truest forms. Its style is clear, simple, precise, flowing, and elegant, and contrasts favorably with that of most philosophical writers of ancient or modern times. It is just the work the American public are prepared for, and is just the one needed to give the right direction to philosophic inquiry."—Brownson's Review.

"This book of the illustrious Spaniard was written to determine the boundaries of human science. Like Solomon, like Socrates, like all great souls, the gifted Catalan priest found his heart constantly calling on his intellect to answer, what do I know? what can I know? Of what avail is knowledge, or the pursuit of knowledge?

"If ever he had said to himself, with the wisest Pagan of antiquity, and saddest skeptic of our own times—

——'All that we know is, nothing can be known,'

if ever this cheerless and fruitless sentiment found a lodgment in his generous mind, it is certain he got bravely over it, when he attempted such a demonstration of human capacity, as is displayed in these volumes.

"We have followed his course, we have gone over his road, as a Frank of the Carlovingian times might have travelled an old Roman causeway. We see that it is; we feel that it is solid; we believe that it is safe; we have a general conviction that it came out from Rome, and leads inevitably thither; but how those difficulties of nature, of time and place, of accident and substance, of extension and will, how they were all overcome, and brought into this ample and direct scheme of human science, we have as yet but feebly and imperfectly comprehended.

"It is no vain desire to stimulate other readers that makes us, thus early, return to the mention of these two volumes. Many of those whom we have the honor to address, made their philosophical studies under scholastic advantages we never enjoyed. Others have picked up for themselves from current literature, some principles that serve them in place of a philosophy. Because the one class are our superior in learning, we have no hope to reach them, and because the other are our equals in ignorance, we do not presume to lecture them. And yet, having the opportunity to address twelve thousand minds, of various conditions, if we should not endeavor to tell them where wisdom may be had, how can we expect to escape censure and remorse?

"The whole work is divided into ten books, of which the first volume contains but three, and the second the remainder, with the notes. Book 1st treats of Certainty; Book 2d of Sensation; Book 3d of Extension and Space; Book 4th of Ideas; Book 5th of the Idea of Being; Book 6th, of Unity and Number; Book 7th, On Time; Book 8th, on The Infinite; Book 9th, On Substance; Book 10th, On Necessity and Causality. From this table alone one may see the sweep of the Catalonian eagle's wing, which followed without being wearied, whenever his eagle eye detected the object of its quest. It is impossible to read such a book in a few days, or to digest its contents in a few months. In some number of our next volume we may venture to discuss its merits. To-day we are only able to give it the usual notice due to new publications."—American Celt.

"Mr. H. Brownson has conferred a substantial service upon the English and American public, by his translation of the great work of the learned Spaniard. For, as it is well observed in the preface, "He who translates well a good book from a foreign language into his own, does a service to his country next to that of writing a good book himself;" and the translator has here given us a good English translation of an excellent book. In its English version, it has been carefully examined by the learned Dr. Brownson, who has also enriched it with a very valuable 'Introduction;' and the highest credit is due to the enterprising publishers for the handsome style in which it has been brought out. With all these advantages the work we hope will meet with an extensive circulation."—Montreal True Witness.

"The name alone of Balmes, one of the best writers and profoundest philosophers of the present century, is a sufficient guarantee of the excellence and solidity of the above-named work."—Boston Pilot.

An Elementary Greek Grammar, based ON THE LATEST GERMAN EDITION OF KÜH-NER. By CHARLES O'LEARY, M. A.

Large 12mo., half arabesque, 75 cents.

The want has been generally felt of an Elementary Greek Grammar, on the modern improved system of German Grammars. This system has been taught for some years at Mount St. Mary's College, both by Professor O'Leary and others, with marked advantage to the student over the old system.

Induced by this consideration, Professor O'Leary has compiled the present treatise. The plan pursued, is that followed in teaching at the above College, which is virtually that adopted in the Grammars of which it professes to be an abridgement.

The Grammar aims at giving in a clear and brief form all the advantages of Kühner's, apart from the incidental disquisitions, numerous details, and special examples of the original.

The student is made acquainted with the laws that govern the interchange of letters, and thus furnished with a key to the forms and changes of declinable words, which in the old Grammars were matters of rote.

The structure of the verb is presented in an entirely new form, whereby it is much simplified. The syntax is an abridgement of Kühner's, by Jelf, brief and simple, so as to accord with the general object of the Grammar.

"The Professor of Greek in Mount St. Mary's College, near Cincinnati, speaks of the order, clearness, and brevity of the new Grammar in the highest terms, and thinks it destined to supersede all others now used in the schools."—Catholic Telegraph.

"The great advantage of this Grammar over the Greek Grammars heretofore in use is, that it renders the rudiments of the language much easier to learn and retain, inasmuch as they are less a multitude of isolated instances fatiguing the memory of the student than the legitimate deductions of the scientific principles of the language. We recommend the book to the examination of teachers. As far as we have had time to examine it ourselves, we have been much pleased with it."—Brownson's Review.

CARDINAL LAMBRUSCHINI'S CELEBRATED

Work on the Immaculate Conception.

A Polemical Treatise on the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin, by CARDINAL LAMBRUSCHINI, to which is added, a History of the Doctrine, by FATHER FELIX, S. J. The French portion of the work is translated by Mrs. J. SADLIER, and the Latin extracts from the Holy Fathers, by a Clergyman of the Diocese of Montreal. 12mo., with a fine steel engraving.

Cloth, extra, 50 cents; gilt, 75 cents.

"The style in which this volume is presented to the public does great honor to the publishers. Like all Mrs. Sadlier's translations, it is carefully and correctly translated. One can read it without having the thought of its being a translation continually before the mind. The History of the Doctrine, by Father Felix, S. J., also translated by Mrs. Sadlier, greatly enhances the value of this volume. We most heartily commend it to all those who wish to possess the most valuable work on the Immaculate Conception which has appeared in this country."—Brownson's Review.

NEW AND ELEGANT ILLUSTRATED WORK!

Published with the Approbation of the MOST REV. JOHN HUGHES, D. D.,

ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK.

Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary, MOTHER OF GOD;

With the HISTORY OF THE DEVOTION TO HER ;
Completed by the Traditions of the East, the Writings of Fathers, and Private History of the Jews. By the ABBE
ORSINI. To which are added the MEDITATIONS ON THE LITANY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN. By the ABBE EDONARD BARTHE. Translated from the French, by MRS. J. SADLIER.

This magnificent work of the Abbé Orsini was recommended to me by those whose judgment carries weight in such matters, as the fullest and most compendious Life of the Mother of God, seeing that it does not break off, as most others do, at the close of her mortal life, but follows the course of the universal devotion wherewith the Church has honoured, and does still honour, this Queen of angels and of men. It shows how from age to age that devotion has grown and prospered coequal with Catholicity, and records the shrines and churches erected in every land under her invocation. It embodies the Eastern traditions concerning her, with the conclusive testimony of the Fathers; the little which is related of her in Scripture being but a faint sketch of her life.

There has been an abridgment of the first volume published in Dublin and republished here: but, as all the second volume was left out, the work in question is a small one, and has, consequently, no interference with this. The second volume is, indeed, the most interesting, as it contains the Rise and Progress of the Devotion to the Blessed Virgin, and I trust it will be found a valuable acquisition to our Catholic literature. It is a labor of love for a Catholic to celebrate the praises and publish the renown of our most dear Mother, and my only regret is that the translation of this work has not fallen into better hands. Such as it is, however, it is done with the pure intention of honouring the glorious Virgin, who obtains for every one of us so many and so great blessings, and of inspiring the heart of every reader with love and gratitude to her.—Translator's Preface.

This is the only COMPLETE LIFE OF CHRIST AND HIS APOSTLES published in the English language. The Catholic Press have spoken of the work in the most favourable manner.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

“ We cordially congratulate the Catholics of the United States on the appearance of a work at once so important and interesting as Father De Ligny's Life of Christ. It is already widely known and appreciated on the continent of Europe, where it has long been prized as one of the most useful of devotional works. Mrs. Sadlier, to whom the Catholics of the United States are already much indebted for her valuable contributions to our Catholic literature, has rendered Father De Ligny's work into our tongue with singular felicity, and a nice regard to the original text. The work is superbly printed, and appears in parts, at the very low price of twenty-five cents per number. The steel engravings are done in the best style of the art, and are after designs by Rubens, Vandyke, De Caisne, Scheffer, and other eminent masters of the old school. We know no Catholic publication of more general utility, and really so cheap. It has already attained a wide circulation in Europe, and we doubt not but that it will be soon found in every Catholic home in the new world."—American Celt.

EXTRACT FROM THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

"I respectfully lay this humble volume at the feet of the Venerable Prelates and Clergy of the United States, not as worthy of their patronage, or even of their notice, but as a mark of filial reverence and submission, and of profound and lively gratitude for their kind encouragement, and generous and uniform support of my humble labours in the cause of Catholic truth.

"I would also inscribe it to my Protestant countrymen. They will find in it many reasons why I have ceased to be a Protestant, but none I hope, for believing that I have lost any of my former interest in them, or that their welfare here or hereafter is less dear to me than ever it was. My sympathies with my fellow-men, which, perhaps, are livelier and deeper than some suppose, have been quickened and expanded, not deadened and contracted, by my conversion to Catholicity. I have said nothing in the following pages in wrath; I have spoken only in love.

"Placing this volume, though all unworthy, with devout gratitude and tender love, under the protection of our Blessed Lady, as I do myself and all my interests, I send it forth to the public, hoping that it may contain a fit word fitly spoken for some earnest mind struggling to emancipate itself from error, and to burst into 'the glorious liberty of the children of God.'

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

“ We know not the author of this new translation of the Imitation, but its merits cannot be doubted, since it has obtained the sanction of the highest authority, not only in ecclesiastical matters, but in scholarship and taste—Cardinal Wiseman.”—Dublin Review.

“ The Sadliers have brought out an edition of Thomas à Kempis' ‘Imitation of Christ,’ which deserves special commendation for the beauty of typography, paper, and binding. We like it better than any English edition of this work we have seen. Let all who have not this text-book of piety and meditation obtain a copy.”—New York Freeman's Journal.

“ This is the finest edition of the ‘Following of Christ’ ever printed on this side of the Atlantic. Every Catholic, whether old or young, should have a copy of this treasure of a book.”—Montreal True Witness.

“ A beautiful copy of the well-known devotional work of Thomas à Kempis, which has so long been regarded with favour by the whole Christian world. This edition is one of the finest specimens of American typography and paper, particularly in a religious work, which we have ever seen.”—Norton's Literary Gazette.

The Life of St. Elizabeth of Hungary, DUCHESS OF THURUGIA.

BY THE COUNT DE MONTALEMBERT, PEER OF FRANCE.

TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH,

By Mary Wickett, and Mrs. J. Sadlier.

1 Vol. Royal 12mo. Fine paper, with a splendid Portrait after Overbeck, engraved on steel.

Price, Cloth extra, $1 ; do. $1,50 ; English Mor. extra, $2,00.

In the translation of this work, published in Dublin, the introduction, which forms about 150 pages of the original, and nearly one-third of the whole work, was omitted. Our edition will contain the entire work.

This is one of the most interesting biographies in any language. We defy even the most lukewarm Catholic to read it, without inwardly thanking God that he belongs to a church that can produce such purity, and holiness, and so much humility and self-denial as is exemplified in the life of the "dear St. Elizabeth."

"'Rome and the Abbey,' by the author of 'Geraldine.' Sadlier's have just published this story; get it and read it—of course you will." —N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

"'Rome and the Abbey' is the title of a new work by the authoress of 'Geraldine,' a tale which has enjoyed a very wide circulation in England and in the United States. The publishers are the Messrs. Sadlier of New York, who have issued it in the form of a well-bound, well printed, and very creditable volume of something over 400 pages. We notice with pleasure the great improvement in the mechanical execution of Catholic publications within the last few years."—Shepherd of the Valley.

BUTLER'S LIVES OF THE SAINTS.

LIVES OF THE FATHERS, MARTYRS, AND OTHER PRINCIPAL SAINTS. By the REV. ALBAN BUTLER, as originally published by him in twelve, now complete in four volumes, royal octavo, containing upwards of 3,100 pages of letter-press, printed in a clear, bold type, with marginal lines, from entirely new stereotype plates, which for beauty and excellence of finish cannot be excelled.

To this edition is now added the Lives of all the Saints canonized down to 1839, under the pontificate of Pope Gregory XVI., of blessed memory; with a new Historical Index in accordance with the Roman Breviaries; and the celebrated preface written by the Right Rev. Dr. DOYLE, Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin; making this edition the most perfect ever published in Europe or this country, and altogether forming a complete Catholic Library, a copy of which should be in the possession of every Catholic family. This edition also contains 25 fine steel engravings, and four illuminated titles, in various bindings, with the approbation of the Most Rev. Dr. HUGHES, and 29 Archbishops and Bishops of the Catholic Church—printed on the finest paper, super extra morocco, flexible bevelled, in English or French style, gilt edges, $16.

Turkey, super extra, $14.

American Morocco, gilt edges, $12.50.

do. do. marble edges, $10.50.

Embossed Sheep, do. do. $9.

* * The Publishers at the solicitation of several clergymen, being desirous of extending the circulation of this inestimable work, have resolved to issue a cheap edition, to suit the wants of such persons as cannot afford to buy the more expensive copies, but they strongly recommend all those who can purchase their illustrated edition, in all instances to take them in preference to this cheap edition, as from the extraordinary care which they bestow on the printing and binding of the former, they can with the fullest confidence assert that no work published here or elsewhere, will be found cheaper, or give more general satisfaction.

SUPERB NEW EDITIONS OF THE HOLY BIBLE.

From the Versions of Douay and Rheims, translated from the Latin Vulgate, and diligently compared with the Hebrew, Greek, and other editions in various languages. Published with the Approbation of the Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

The Old Testament was first published by the English college at Douay, A. D. 1609; and the New Testament by the English college at Rheims, A. D. 1582. The paper is excellent, the type is large and beautiful, and it is the only new copy of the sacred volume published in this country. The proof sheets of this work have been read several times with the greatest care, and we are happy to inform those interested that a single error has not been detected, either by the Rev. clergy or editors who have examined the work. It is not necessary to enter into detail; suffice it to say, that this edition has the Table of References, Annotations, Historical and Chronological Indexes of the Old and New Testament, Table of Controversial References, comprising the scriptural texts applicable to all the principal controverted points, Table of Epistles and Gospels for all the Sundays and holydays throughout the year, and all the other tables usually contained in the sacred volume. The ILLUSTRATIONS, Twenty-six in number, several of which have been executed in London, are superior to any thing of the kind executed in this country. It has four Family Records, ex-executed expressly for this work ; and as regards the "getting up" of the work, it cannot be surpassed. In order to make this edition more valuable, it has appended to it Ward's Errata, revised and corrected from the last London Edition, to which are added the celebrated Preface by the Rev. Doctor Lingard, in answer to Ryan's Analysis ; and a Vindication by the Right Rev. Dr. Milner in answer to Grier's Reply. This is very valuable to Protestants as well as Catholics, and to all those who wish carefully to examine and compare the Catholic and Protestant editions of the Bible."

Printed on the finest paper, with rules, and bound in Turkey, super extra, with rich ornamental gilding, and emblematical designs expressly executed for this work, also treble gilt clasps, morocco joints and corresponding panels, beautifully embellished after the antique style, altogether a most gorgeous Book, and well suited for a Marriage, Christmas, or Family present.

"Religion in Society—(Grands Problems.) We rejoice to state that this very interesting work of the Abbé Martinet, in an excellent English translation, is now published and ready. This is a book for every Catholic that reads; and a book for every person that reads Catholic books. We shall hasten to give it a fuller notice."—N. Y. Freeman's Journal*.

Pope and Maguire's Discussion.

Perhaps no discussion ever excited so much attention as this. Rev. Mr. Pope was an itinerant controversialist, who went about challenging the priests to come forth and defend the doctrines of their Church,—the Rev. Mr. Maguire accepted the challenge. Up to that time his name was scarcely known beyond the precincts of his parish, (which was situated in the mountains of Leitrim,) but after the discussion, "Father Maguire" became the most popular Priest in Ireland. Pope retired from the contest conscious of defeat, for he never challenged any more priests.

12mo. fine paper, cloth extra, 75 cents.

Pastorini's General History of the Church.

THE GENERAL HISTORY OF THE CHURCH, from her Birth to her final Triumphant State in Heaven. Deduced from the Apocalypse of St. John the Apostle and Evangelist, by SIGNOR PASTORINI, (Bishop Walmsley.) With a portrait of the Author.

12mo. 396 pages, cloth extra, 75 cents.

Life of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Doyle,

BISHOP OF KILDARE AND LEIGHLIN—With a Portrait.

The life of this Patriot Bishop should be in the house of every Catholic; more especially those of Irish origin. It gives a summary of his examination before the House of Lords, on the Catholic question. It is a work which every Irish father should place in the hands of his children, as his name should be engraved indelibly upon the hearts of Irishmen and their offspring. Cloth extra, 38 cents.

P. 16 cts.

Cobbett's History of the Reformation.

THE HISTORY OF THE REFORMATION IN ENGLAND AND IRELAND; showing how that event has impoverished the main body of the people in those countries. By WILLIAM COBBETT. Two vols. bound in one.

 The second volume contains a list of the Priors, Nunneries, Abbeys, Hospitals, and other religious foundations seized on, or alienated, by the "Protestant Reformation," Sovereigns, and Parliaments; with an Appendix, containing Cobbett's Three Letters to the Pope, the Earl of Roden, and the Clergy of the Church of England, making this valuable book the only complete edition published in this country. Such was the great estimation in which this work was held when first published, that it was translated into five different languages. 18mo., 660 pages of neat and close letter-press, on fine paper, full sheep, or embossed muslin, 75 cents.

P. 8 cts.

Cobbett's Legacies.

Two Volumes in One.

 The first volume consists of six letters addressed to the Church Parsons in general, with a dedication to Bloomfield, Bishop of London. Subject: "Have the Clergy of the Established Church an equitable right to the Tithes, or to any other thing called Church Property, greater than the dissenters have to the same? and ought there, or ought there not, be a separation of the Church from the State?" The second volume is addressed to the working classes, with a dedication to Sir Robert Peel, Bart. Subject: "What is the Right which the Lords, Baronets, and Squires, have to the land?" 18mo., large type, full muslin, embossed, gilt back, 87½ cents.

P. 16 cts.

The End of Controversy.

By the REV. DR. MILNER. To which is added, his Address to the Lord Bishop of St. David's, and his Postscript to the same. 12mo. Illustrated with the Apostolic Tree. 50 cents.

Dr. Milner's work has gone through more editions than any controversial work in the English language; and it has been the means, under God, of bringing back thousands of the English people to the ancient faith. His arguments have never been answered.

Christian Directory,

Post. 24 cents.

Guiding men to their eternal salvation ; with many corrections and additions. To this Edition are prefixed the life of the Author, and a method for the use of all, with two tables. By the Rev. ROBERT PARSONS, of the Society of Jesus. The good Christian has, in this estimable book, pointed out to him, the means by which he may obtain the rewards of eternal life ; while, at the same time, he is shown how he can overcome all the obstacles which impede his salvation. 12mo., 600 pages.

Price.—Cloth, extra, $1 25.

St. Augustin's Confessions.

Post. 15 cents.

Translated from the Latin, by a Catholic Clergyman. 18mo. 400 pages. Cloth, extra, 50 cents.

The above is a work that should be in the hands of every Catholic. The name of the author is a sufficient guarantee of its usefulness.

Ward's Cantos ;

Post. 12 cents.

OR, ENGLAND'S REFORMATION. A Poem, in four Cantos, by THOMAS WARD, Esq. To which are added, Publisher's Preface, Life of the Author, Notes to justify the facts related, and several Additions faithfully extracted from the Author's manuscript.

I sing the deeds of great King Harry,
Of Ned, his son, and daughter Mary ;
And of a nine days' inter-reign
Of a mock Queen, high Lady Jane ;
The true religion's alteration,
And Church of England's first foundation."

Introduction to the first Canto.

There is no other work upon so interesting a subject, which combines so much instruction with amusement. It unravels the dark deeds of the Reformation, and in the most biting satire exposes the beastly licentiousness and rapacity of its chief actors. 18mo., fine paper, clear type, full muslin, embossed and lettered, 50 cents.

The Life of Thomas Moore.

Doctrinal and Scriptural Catechism.

By THE REV. PERE COLLOT, Doctor of the Sorbonne. Translated from the French, by MRS. J. SADLER. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This is considered by competent judges as the most complete, and at the same time, the most concise Catechism of the Christian Religion and of Scripture History that has yet been offered to the public. It is admirably adapted for adults requiring instruction as well as for children. The answers are all so condensed that they are easily committed to memory; and there is not a single point connected with religion, either of doctrine, discipline, or ceremonial, that is not fully explained.

We know that this work requires only to be known to secure for it a very wide circulation. In order to place the work within the reach of every person, we have determined to put it at the following prices. 12mo. 440 pages, half bound, 38 cents; muslin, 50 cents; to schools and colleges we will put them at $25 per hundred.

Elements of History,

Combined with Geography and Chronology, for younger classes. By JOHN G. SHEA, author of the History and Discovery of the Mississippi. 12mo. Illustrated with 40 engravings and six maps.

Half-bound, cloth sides, 50 cents ; do. paper sides, 38 cents.

The author of this work (Mr. Shea,) has made History his particular study. He has produced a History which Catholics can safely place in the hands of their children without fear of meeting the usual lies against their Religion, which form part of most of the School Histories published.

An Elementary History of the United STATES. By JOHN G. SHEA.

16mo. Half Roan, 25 cents.

Many books of the kind are already before the public, not a few on the same topic as this. It was, however, thought that something might be done to avoid the faults of tone or matter in some and of manner in others.

According to the rule laid down in the best Continental works on Education, the answer is always given in full explicit terms, repeating and never supposing the question. In this way the child learns and retains in its memory complete sentences, comprising each a fact worthy of recollection, and not a detached date or name. In teaching, this should also be insisted upon, and when the class begins to compose, the advantage acquired by learning to speak complete sentences, will be evinced perhaps more strikingly than in any other way.

From the plan thus adopted this little book may be read continuously from first to last, omitting the questions, and will in this way serve as a primary reader.

Avec une Table Générale et Particulière des Mots et de leur signification en Anglais, selon l'ordre des Fables, pour en rendre la traduction plus facile à l'écolier. Par M. PERRIN. Edition revue et corrigée par un Maître de langue Française.

18mo. Half bound, 25 cents.

The French Companion,

Post. 8 cents.

Consisting of Familiar Conversations on every topic which can be useful to the Continental Traveller, together with Models of Letters, Notes, and Cards occasionally used.

In this work is exhibited the true pronunciation of the French Language, the silent letters being printed in Italic throughout the Work. By M. D. Rouillon. Fourth American from the twelfth London Edition. Revised and Corrected for the use of Schools. By P. MOULS, Professor of Languages. 256 pages, 18mo., half roan, 37½ cents.

Walkingame's Arithmetic ;

Post. 8 cents.

Or, THE TUTOR'S ASSISTANT. Being a Compendium of Arithmetic, and Complete Question Book. Published for the use of the Christian Brothers' Schools in Canada and the British Provinces.

This work having been perused by several eminent Mathematicians and Accountants, is recommended as the best compendium hitherto published, for the use of Schools, or for private persons. By FRANCIS WALKINGAME, Writing-Master and Accountant. To which is added, a Compendium of Book-Keeping, by ISAAC FISHER.

Nine Days' Devotion; or, A Novena Preparatory to the Feast of St. Patrick, Apostle and Patron of Ireland; to which is added, Devotions for Confession and Communion, and Prayers at Mass. 24mo. Cloth, extra, 13 cents. Postage 3 cents.

Benjamin; or, The Pupil of the Christian Brothers. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. SADLIER. 32mo., 250 pages. Price, 25 cents.

"The selection of this story is additional evidence of the good taste of Mrs. Sadlier, and of her right Catholic feeling. Benjamin is a boy who was thrown upon the world at a very early age, and who finally turned out well. The story is intended to illustrate the ease with which a good child is corrupted by bad companions, the difficulty of winning him from evil courses, and the immense importance of a truly Christian education for the young. The system pursued by the Christian Brothers is fully vindicated in the little book. We recommend it, not only to children, but to the attentive consideration of parents."

THE AMERICAN PRIMARY ARITHMETIC. Designed for the use of the junior pupils of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. By P. ULIC BURKE, M. D. E. 18mo., half-bound. 18 cts.

Approbation.

MONTREAL, March 30, 1858.

SIR,—We have examined the manuscript copy of the Arithmetic which you sent us, and think that it is all we could desire, and in clearness of expression and reasoning excels any that we have yet met with in the United States, and we have not the slightest objection to your stating that we have adopted it for our schools.

In saying that we have adopted it, we have not said sufficient to express our feelings; I should add that we make this engagement most heartily, and with sentiments of gratitude to the author, believing that he has conferred a great benefit on our Catholic Schools.

I am, with profound respect, Sir,

Your very humble and obedient Servant,

F. FACILE,

Dr. P. U. BURKE, Utica.

Provincial of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

Extract from the Preface.

Treatises on Arithmetic are so numerous and excellent, that it might seem superfluous to add another to the number; yet it was thought that room might still be found for one, which, discarding, to a great degree, the multitude of complicated rules which, at the present day, encumber this science, and appealing more directly to the reasoning faculties of the pupils, might enable them to solve, if not all, nearly all of the most difficult problems in arithmetic by the aid of the first four fundamental rules; and it is hoped, that the reasoning powers thus applied to the discovery of the relations and analogies found to exist among numbers, would not cease there, but would continue to be applied by the pupils to other pursuits and to other circumstances wholly foreign to calculations, and with results as satisfactory as were the solutions of the problems on which they were first exercised. It will, I am sure, be also considered the very best possible introduction to algebra.

The various properties of numbers present a great variety of simple and easy methods of solving many problems which were, heretofore, considered to belong more properly to the domain of algebra, but which would require considerably more time even to put them into the form of an algebraic equation than it takes to solve them by reason and arithmetical analysis.

THE AMERICAN PRIMARY ARITHMETIC AND THE AMERICAN PRACTICAL ARITHMETIC.—Both these works are the production of P. U. Burke, M. D. E., and both are published by the Sadliers. They are among the very best Arithmetics we have seen. At first we were disposed to condemn the too technical accuracy of the introductory book; but when we consider that the exact sciences demand the utmost exactness, we believe it is best to familiarize the learner as early as possible with precise scientific terms. The book rightly prepared cannot be too technical. The larger work, the Practical Arithmetic, is far more than its modest author claims for it. It is not only an improved treatise on its subject, but an improved introduction to all analytical study.—Catholic Mirror.

Standard CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS.

 The following Prayer Books are all printed on fine paper, in clear, bold type, and for beauty of finish and durability of binding, cannot be excelled. They contain all the necessary prayers used by Catholics, with several additions, all carefully revised and issued under the approbation of the Most Rev. John Hughes, D.D. The most particular pains have been taken in the printing and binding of these Prayer Books.

This Manual contains, in addition to forms in general use, various devotions selected from approved Continental works. The Prayers, Litanies, &c., &c., have been collated with the Latin originals, wherever such works were known to exist. The English version of the Psalms here given, has been constructed by a comparison of the authorized Douay text (to which in substance it adheres), with the several other versions which from time to time have been sanctioned for the purpose of devotions. The Indulged Prayers have been literally translated from the Racotta, Bouvier's Treatise on Indulgences, and the last edition of the Celestæ Palmetuni. The particulars connected with the Confraternities, &c., to which Indulgences are attached, have been carefully collected from authorized sources, published with the approbation of His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman. The American edition has been enlarged with numerous translations from the French and Italian, and selections of prayers in general use in this country; together with the complete offices of the Blessed Virgin, and Gospels and Collects for every Sunday throughout the year, and explanations of all the Festivals, with a large number of Novenas, Litanies, and a list of the Popes, &c., &c.

New and Complete Missal, IN LATIN AND ENGLISH, with all the New Offices and the Proper of Ireland, Scotland, and the Jesuits. With engravings, and printed throughout in red and black.

This volume is a marvel of typography, and supplies a desideratum which had long been felt, viz.—an edition of the Missal for the use of the laity, with every Office for the whole year in full, clearly arranged, printed in a distinct type, and in the smallest possible compass.—The volume is 6 inches by $3\frac{1}{2}$ in size, one inch thick, and weighs only 16 ozs.; by post, 16 cents. Among other characteristics of this edition, for which see the preface, a new and useful arrangement has been adopted with regard to the Epistles and Gospels. Many of these, as is well known, are used for various Masses, and in other Missals have to be sought for in different parts of the book, often causing much trouble and confusion. In the present edition all the lessons are printed together in their proper order in the second part of the volume; so that where the reference to the Epistle and Gospel is given in the Mass for the day, the reader knows at once to turn for them to the end of the book. The whole body of Scripture contained in the Missal is thus also thrown together under one view, with a table showing the occasion on which each passage is used.

The Way to Heaven.

A SELECT MANUAL OF PRAYERS for Daily Use,
Compiled from approved Sources, with the Approbation of Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

This Manual is intended as a companion to the more complete books of devotion already existing, and is compiled upon a plan which, it is hoped, will render it generally acceptable. Such a book as "The Golden Manual," or "Garden of the Soul," comprising forms of Devotions for every occasion, as well as instructions and explanations, is of course, an indispensable companion for the devout Catholic. But, besides this, most persons feel the want of a small compact Manual, containing a selection simply of such devotions as are most frequently required. This and the larger work together, will thus be found to supply all that is generally needed, for the purposes whether of public or private devotion. And each can be used according as circumstances suggest. This Manual, as well as its more complete companion, contains it will be seen, a large number of prayers to which indulgences are attached. Such are, for the sake of convenience, distinguished by an asterisk. A more convenient arrangement has been adopted for the Ordinary of the Holy Mass, Devotions at Mass, Mass for the Dead, and Vespers. New translations of the following Devotions, now published for the first time in English, are also inserted. Way of saying the Rosary with the Beads, four different ways are given. Visits to the Most Holy Sacrament, Mysteries of the Sacred Infancy, Dwellings in the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Seven Words of Jesus on the Cross, Little Rosary of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Rosary of the Immaculate Conception, Rosary of the Seven Dolours of our Blessed Lady, Sorrows and Joys of St. Joseph, Devotions to St. Philip Neri, with a number of others.

We send this little book before the public, with the assurance that no expence has been spared to make it, with the exception of the Golden Manual, the most complete Manual published in this country.

NEW AND REVISED EDITIONS.

THE MISSION BOOK;

A Manual of Instructions and Prayers adapted to preserve the Fruits of the Mission. Drawn chiefly from the works of ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI. Published under the direction of the Fathers of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, and Missionary Priests of St. Paul the Apostle, and with the Approbation of the Most Reverend JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

This little manual of instruction and devotion, although now entirely remodelled, and enriched with much additional matter, is substantially the same book which, in other countries, particularly in Austria, Bohemia, Belgium, Holland, and France, has been already so greatly blessed. It contains all the most necessary and general devotions: namely, Morning and Night Prayers, Prayers for Holy Mass, for Vespers and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and also very excellent prayers for Confession and Communion. It contains also the particular devotions in most common use among Catholics, and other very useful and animating devotions, such as the Visits to the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar, and to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Besides these, it contains wholesome reflections for daily or frequent meditation, which will prove a powerful means to maintain you in the fear of mortal sin, the desire of a holy life, and the practice of virtue.

In this little book you will find also a short Catechism, by way of questions and answers, which contains all those great truths of your religion which it is most necessary for your salvation to know, and by means of which you will be able to instruct your children and your domestics in the same necessary doctrines. Here also are contained very plain and ample instructions on every part of the Sacrament of Penance, like those you heard in the Mission, and moreover a little treatise on General Confession, with a full and exact Examination of Conscience.

In case of your being taken ill, there is also a Manual for the Sick, which you can make use of with great profit, and where you may learn to assist others in their sickness.

PRINTED ON THE FINEST PAPER FROM NEW AND ELEGANT TYPE, BOUND IN THE STRONGEST MANNER, WITH FINE STEEL ENGRAVINGS. 500 PAGES.

THE RACCOLTA;

Or, Collection of Indulged Prayers (Suitable for Confraternities and for Private Devotion). Translated by AMBROSE ST. JOHN, of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri, Birmingham. The edition contains an Appendix, containing Devotions for Morning and Evening, the Mass, the Penitential Psalms, the Holy Way of the Cross, Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Vespers, &c., &c. It is printed in large, clear type, which is most desirable in a prayer book, and can be had in the following styles of binding:—

This book of prayers presents itself to the Catholic world with the sanction of the highest authority in the Church, and its use confers high privileges, which will make it the vade mecum of every Catholic. The work has been translated by the Rev. Ambrose St. John, of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri, in the diocese of Birmingham, England, from the last Roman edition. The translation is entirely new, no use having been made of any existing translation of prayers occurring in the Raccolta, which have appeared in various books of devotion, from time to time. It was advertised for publication several years ago, was already translated, and about to be printed, when the reverend translator was advised to withhold it for a time, as it might be, that, on mature consideration, certain changes might be desirable. When, after a lapse of nine years, the translator read his manuscript again, he concluded to re-translate the work for the most part, and cheerfully recommenced his work. The result of the double labors of Father St. John is now presented to the Catholic world, and will now become, as the gifted translator says, "the Church Prayer Book of Private Devotion," as the Missal and Breviary are her books of public devotion.

Father St. John, having obtained the approbation of Cardinal Wiseman, begged permission to print in English a translation of the "Raccolta," and also, that those who made use of it should obtain all the indulgences attached to the original work, which was granted by Pope Pius, in the following Rescript:

[TRANSLATION.]

MOST BLESSED FATHER:—In order to promote thereby the piety of the faithful in England, Ambrose St. John, Priest of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri, in the diocese of Birmingham, humbly prays for permission to print, in English, a translation of the book entitled Raccolta di Orazioni, &c., alle quali sono annesse le SS. Indulgence, having first obtained the approbation of his Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster; and also, that the faithful, who make use of this translation, may gain all the indulgences annexed to the original.

After an audience of the Holy Father, granted February 3, 1856, our most Holy Lord Pope Pius IX., by Divine Providence Pope, on an application made by me, the undersigned, Secretary of the Sacred Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, has, of his goodness, answered by Rescript, in favor of the grace, according to the terms of the petition, provided the translation be made from the last Roman edition, and it being understood, that the Decree printed at the end of this edition, remains in full force.

Given at Rome, from the House of the same Sacred Congregation, on the day and year aforesaid.

Gratis, without any payment, on any plea whatever.

In the place of ✱ the seal.

AL BARNABO, Secretary.

We approve of the translation, by virtue of the above Rescript of His Holiness.

✱ N. CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP.

Westminster, Oct. 23, 1857.

We cheerfully unite in approbation of this work, as the same has been approved by his Eminence, the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

New York, July, 1858.

✱ JOHN, Archbishop of New York.

THE RACCOLTA—This book supplies an absolute want; it fills up an inexplicable, because unnatural vacuum in our English Catholic books of devotion. It comes to us with the highest recommendation, and under the best approval. Every one who wishes a reliable list of the "Indulgences," and the conditions for acquiring them, should obtain this book immediately. It is the only book in the English language, which has proper authority for all the details concerning Indulgences, and the only one which has proper approval of the translation of indulgenced prayers.—Catholic Mirror.

After the numerous complaints which have been made, by prelates and critics, of the unauthorized devotions which abound in our many prayer-books, it is refreshing to see one about which there cannot possibly be any question. The Raccolta delle Indulgenze, of which the present work is a translation, is pre-eminently the Roman manual of private devotion. It is now in its thirteenth edition, and is more generally used in Italy, than any other prayer-book. The use of indulgenced devotions, in preference to any others, cannot be too strongly insisted upon. To say nothing of the benefits resulting therefrom, to the living and the dead, the use of them increases our faith in the Church, and binds us more closely to the Holy Father, to whom the power of granting indulgences alone belongs.

Father St. John's translation has evidently been made with scrupulous care and fidelity; and commands our admiration by the elegant simplicity and directness of its style. The authorization of the Holy Father is prefixed to the work, signed by Cardinal Barnabo, Secretary of the Propaganda, and is followed by the approbation of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster. The present reprint of the English edition, is made with the approbation of His Grace, the Archbishop of New York. It is printed in a convenient form, on fine paper, in elegant style, and with uncommon typographical correctness. It reflects great credit on its publishers, who will, undoubtedly, reap a rich reward from their enterprise.—Boston Pilot.

WORKS ON IRELAND.

P. 50 cts.

THE

HISTORY OF IRELAND,

Ancient and Modern.

Taken from the most authentic records, and dedicated to the Irish Brigade, by the ABBE MACGEOGHEGAN. Translated from the French by PATRICK O'KELLY, Esq., with four fine Steel Engravings. This important national history is printed in clear type, on fine paper, with marginal lines, and has been most favorably reviewed by the American and European Press.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"Our citizens have now a most favorable opportunity of supplying themselves with the best History of Ireland extant. There are several works devoted to the subject, but some are corrupt, others bigoted, many incomplete and inaccurate. We may say of Keating, Leland, Plowden, Taylor, Moore, Smiles, &c., that their histories are defective or incomplete. Common consent seems to have fixed upon the work of the Abbé MacGeoghegan as the best. The author was chaplain of the illustrious 'Irish Brigade,' a patriotic son of Ireland, and an accomplished scholar of polished and unusual acquirements. He had the best opportunities and full leisure in the French capital for the formation of his history. It is considered a work most faithful and honest, accurate in detail, liberal, patriotic, and high-toned in sentiment, and more complete than any other History of Ireland that we possess."—Freeman's Journal.

The late lamented Thomas Davis, in an Essay on Irish History, speaks of this work as follows:—

"Well, as to this National History—L'Abbé MacGeoghegan published a history of Ireland in French, in 3 vols., quarto, dedicated to the Irish Brigade. Writing in France, he was free from English censorship—writing for 'The Brigade,' he avoided the impudence of Huguenot historians. The sneers of the Deist, Voltaire, and the lies of the Catholic Cambrensis, receive a sharp chastisement in his preface, and a full answer in his text. He was a man of the most varied acquirements, and an elegant writer. For the student of Irish History it is the best book in the world. He is graphic, easy, and Irish. He is not a bigot, but apparently a genuine Catholic. His information as to the number of troops and other facts of our Irish Battles, is superior to any other general Historian, and they who know it well need not blush, as most Irishmen must now, at their ignorance of Irish History."

The Rise and Fall of the Irish Nation.

THE RISE AND FALL OF THE IRISH NATION, by Sir JONAH BARRINGTON, one of his Majesty's counsel at law, judge of the high court of admiralty of Ireland, and member of the late Irish parliament for the cities of Tuam and Clogher. The work contains much valuable information and interesting matter never before published, sketches of the leading members of both sides who figured so conspicuously during that memorable epoch of Irish history. It also contains the red and black list, showing the bribery and corruption by which the Union was carried. The work is a handsome royal 12mo. volume of 472 pages, beautifully printed on fine paper, with portraits of the Author, Fitzgerald, Curran, Grattan, and other distinguished personages on both sides, in all 29 miniature portraits on Steel.

The above work is admitted by competent judges, to be one of the most beautiful productions of the day. It was sold in Dublin, when first published, at $10. Such is its intrinsic merits, that it has been admitted by the Superintendants of Public Schools, into the District School Libraries of the various States. No Irishman, who is desirous of becoming acquainted with that epoch of his country's history—the rise of the volunteers—the declaration of rights—and the debates connected with that tyrannous act, the Legislative Union; should fail to possess a copy of this admirable work.

"The Rise and Fall of the Irish Nation,' is one of the most picturesque and eloquent books in the whole range of our language. Its sketches of political scenes and characters, are, without comparison, the most life-like we know. It is a treasure of a book; one we would not exchange for any ten National books we have."—American Celt.

Valentine McClutchy.

VALENTINE McCLUTCHY, the Irish Agent; the Chronicles of Castle Cumber; together with the Pious Aspirations, Permissions, and other Sanctified Privileges of Solomon McSlime, a Religious Attorney. By WILLIAM CARLETON.

In this work Mr. Carleton has depicted the wrongs and sufferings of his countrymen—their patience and forbearance under their sufferings. And in the character of Valentine McClutchy, he shows the villany practised by the agents of absentee landlords, upon those tenants who are so unfortunate as to hold lands from them.

And as a specimen of a religious Attorney, we would challenge creation to produce a more correct picture than that drawn by Carleton of Solomon McSlime. We venture to say that there is not an Irishman, who would read ten pages of the work, that would be without it for ten times the cost.—Full muslin, embossed, gilt back, 75 cents.

In Selecting a PRAYER BOOK, be careful to get one that contains the PRAYERS and DEVOTIONS approved by the Church.

Just published, in a beautiful 18mo. volume, printed from large type, on fine paper, and embellished with fine engravings,—new and beautiful designs engraved expressly for this work.

In various Plain and Elegant Bindings, from $1 to $10 per Copy.

The Visitation Manual,

A NEW and COMPLETE PRAYER BOOK,

Containing the most Suitable and Appropriate Instructions and Devotions for all stated times and occasions that may arise in the life of a Christian.

This Book, compiled according to the Spiritual Directory and Spirit of Saint Francis de Sales, contains copious extracts from his writings, referring to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Spiritual Direction, Holy Communion, the Sanctification of the Week, and other Subjects comprising much that has never before appeared in English.

The publishers deem it unnecessary to enter into details, or to enlarge on its peculiar merits. The distinguishing feature of this New Book of Devotion is that its forms of Prayer are exclusively confined to those that have received the sanction and approval of the Church; which is more than abundantly vouched for, by the following Approval and Recommendation of the MOST REV. ARCHBISHOP OF BALTIMORE, whose exactness in such matters is universally known.

THE New Prayer Book called "THE VISITATION MANUAL," compiled by some ladies of the Convent of the Visitation in this city, and revised by two learned Clergymen, Examiners of books of this Diocese, and now published by Messrs. JOHN MURPHY & Co., is approved of by me, and recommended to the faithful of my charge.

Given under my hand at Baltimore, this 14th day of November, 1857.

† FRANCIS PATRICK,

Archbishop of Baltimore.

The publishers respectfully solicit attention to the style in which this work is issued. It is printed in a superior manner on substantial paper of a fine texture;—the Prayers at Mass, and other Devotions most generally used, are printed from a large, clear, and bold type, and throughout the entire work great care has been taken in the selection of the type, with the view of rendering it pleasing and agreeable to the eye. These features, combined with its general arrangement and contents, they trust will render this book a favorite with the Catholics of this country.

The Catholic Miscellany, in noticing this New Manual, says:—"The Visitation Manual seems to us one of the best Prayer Books issued for a long time. It contains everything needed for Catholic devotion; suitable prayers for morning and evening, for Mass and the Holy Sacraments, in a word for all stated times, or casual circumstances that may arise in the life of a Christian. That it contains no arbitrary forms of prayer, introduced without the sanction of the Church or in opposition to her liturgical forms, is more than abundantly vouched for by the approval and recommendation with which it has been honored by the learned and venerable Archbishop of Baltimore. A feature of the book has pleased us in an especial manner, viz: the liturgical distribution, if we may so call it, of the devotions, which it contains for the chief mysteries of Our Lord, and His Holy Mother, for the festivals of the principal Saints. The Messrs. Murphy have brought out this handsome book in a most creditable style. They have issued copies in every variety of binding; and we know of no book more suitable for a holiday present."

The New Orleans Catholic Standard says:—"The distinguishing feature of this new book of devotion is that its forms of prayer are exclusively confined to those that have received the sanction of the Church. It appears to offer to the faithful everything needed for Catholic devotion."

The Boston Pilot says:—"We are glad to see that the suggestions made in a late article of Brownson's Review have been followed in the compilation of this book. The book is printed in an elegant style, and the clear, large type, must offer great inducement to old people, and weak eyes. We would respectfully suggest to directors of sodalities and confraternities to introduce this Manual among the fraternities. It is the very thing for them."

Early orders from the Trade, Religious Institutions, the Rev. Clergy, and others, (to whom the usual discount will be made, when purchased in quantities,) are respectfully solicited.

JOHN MURPHY & CO., Publishers, 182 Baltimore street, Baltimore.

For Sale by Catholic Booksellers generally.

In 3 vols. 8vo. at $2, in half calf, gilt backs, $3 per vol.—Vols. I. and II. now ready. Volume III. will be ready early in 1859.

QUAM CONCINNAVIT

SECUNDIS CURIS AUCTORIS.

The first edition of the Theologia Dogmatica being exhausted, a revised edition is passing rapidly through the press, in the famous establishment of HANICQ (now Mr. DESSAIN), at Malines, Belgium, in conjunction with MESSRS. MURPHY & CO. The whole work, formerly consisting of four volumes, is now reduced to three, although considerable additions have been made to it; including an Elaborate Defence of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception, and a Catalogue of the Fathers; and Ecclesiastical Writers, with an accurate discrimination of their genuine works, from others that have passed under their names. The work will appear under the especial sanction of the CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF MALINES, who has been pleased to signify a very high estimate of its merits. It will be issued in a very neat style, in three volumes, of about 500 page-, double column, 8vo., at the very low price of Two Dollars per volume. This edition, though much enlarged, is reduced to Six instead of Ten Dollars—a little more than half the price of the former edition, so as to place it within the reach of Theological Seminaries, Students, &c., to whom a liberal discount will be made when purchased in quantities. WM. KNABE & CO.

Would respectfully invite the attention of the public, and especially those in want of a FIRST CLASS PIANO, to their well assorted stock of instruments, which, for power and sweetness of tone, easy and agreeable touch, and beauty of finish, have by the best of judges, been pronounced unrivaled by any in the country.

As to the relative merits of our PIANOS, we would refer to the

CERTIFICATES OF EXCELLENCE IN OUR POSSESSION, FROM THALBERG, STRAKOSCH, G. SATTER, AND H. VIEUXTEMPS,

I cannot but congratulate you upon the immense progress and improvements which you continually make on your Pianos, which in my opinion, rank among the very best in the country.

M. STRAKOSCH.

Among the great qualities which distinguish your Pianos, is the evenness of tone, agreeable and easy touch, and volume of tone.

S. THALBERG.

I found that the Piano was, in every particular, an excellent one, and your name has, since that time, been fresh in my memory.

G. SATTER.

I was delighted on hearing the clear and full tone of your really First Class Pianos, and I congratulate you on the progress you have made in this branch of art. H. VIEUXTEMPS.

As also from some of the most distinguished professors and amateurs in the country; also, to the following HIGHEST PREMIUMS, received within the last three years: GOLD MEDALS at the Maryland Institute, 1855, 1856, 1857. SILVER MEDALS at the Metropolitan Institute, Washington, 1857; also, MEDAL at the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, 1856; FIRST PREMIUM at Mechanics' Institute, Richmond, 1855 and 1856. All instruments of our manufacture have the full iron frame, and are guaranteed for five years.

Particular attention paid to the selection of instruments for distant orders, and a privilege of exchange granted at any time within 6 months, if the instrument should not prove entirely satisfactory. A liberal discount to Clergymen, Teachers and Schools. Terms liberal. Wholesale dealers will find it to their advantage to give us a call, as by greatly increased facilities, we are enabled to fill all orders with despatch.

Constantly on hand, a large assortment of MELODEONS, from the best Factories.

FOLEY'S Celebrated Gold Pens.

JOHN FOLEY,

Manufacturer,

163 BROADWAY,

NEW-YORK.

To those engaged in mercantile pursuits, any invention that will facilitate their labors is highly worthy of notice, as well as of extensive patronage. One of the most important inventions of the present age, is that of a Pen, that possesses the necessary qualities of fineness in mark, and durability in use. Præeminently such are those of JOHN FOLEY, MANUFACTURER OF FINE GOLD PENS AND PENCILS. Their superior value is tested by the long time he has been engaged in our city in their manufacture.

We, the subscribers, who know the value of these Pens, from constant use of them for a number of years, cheerfully recommend them to those who wish for the best and most perfect Pen ever made.

A New Style---Price $50.

The first place in public estimation is now justly accorded to the GROVER & BAKER MACHINE, FOR FAMILY SEWING, for the following reasons.

1. It is more simple, and easier kept in order, than any other Machine.
2. It makes a seam which will not rip or ravel, though every third stitch is out.
3. It sews from two ordinary spools, and thus all trouble of winding thread is avoided, while the same machine can be adapted, at pleasure, by a mere change of spools, to all varieties of work.
4. The same machine runs silk, linen thread, and common spool cotton, with equal facility.
5. The seam is as elastic as the most elastic fabric, so that it is free from all liability to break in washing, ironing, or otherwise.
6. The stitch made by this machine is more beautiful than any other made, either by hand or machine.

This MACHINE is generally conceded to be the best, the most simple, and durable of any in the market. A child of ten years can readily learn to use one, and the Manufacturers are constantly sending Machines to Families, with no other instructions than are contained in a Circular of directions, which accompany each one. Upwards of twenty thousand families throughout the land attest its superiority. Send for a Circular.
